Dear Fruit and Vegetable Growers:

The 2014 Kentucky Fruit and Vegetable Conference and Trade Show will again be at the Embassy Suites Hotel, Lexington, KY, Monday and Tuesday, January 6 and 7, 2014. Highlights of this year's meeting will be pre-conference Tree Fruit and Small Fruit Round Table Discussions. During the conference there will be sessions on Farmers' Markets, Commercial Fruit and Vegetable Production, High Tunnels, Small Fruit Production, Organic Production, the Grape and Wine Short Course, Direct Marketing, and Agritourism. We have many excellent out-of-state speakers this year including: Dr. Brad Bergefurd and Dr. Gary Gao, Extension Horticulturists, The Ohio State University; Dr. Lewis Jett, State Commercial Horticulture Specialist, West Virginia University; Nicolas Donck, Crystal Organics Farm, Covington, GA; Dr. David Lockwood and Dr. Annette Wszelaki, Extension Fruit and Vegetable Specialists, respectively, from the University of Tennessee.

The KVS will have an optional Celebration of Kentucky Wines Monday evening. This year there will be an Exhibitor/Grower and Conference Luncheons featuring Kentucky Proud products. The Kentucky Farmers Market Association will have their reception and Annual Meeting Monday evening.

We will have a Trading Post bulletin board to sell used equipment. If you are looking for equipment buyers, bring along a description containing your name, phone number and the equipment price.

PLEASE make your room reservations directly with the hotel. Our block of rooms will be held until Jan. 3, 2014. After this, room prices will be higher. Be sure to let the hotel know that you will be staying for the Kentucky Fruit and Vegetable Conference to obtain our special suite room rate for a single or double (they are all suites) of $116.95. If you are told that the block of rooms at our conference rate is full on or before Jan 3, please call Amy Stamper at Embassy Suites (859-455-5109) to increase the number of rooms that we have blocked. The room cost includes an evening managers' reception from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. with drinks and a full cooked-to-order breakfast daily. We encourage growers to stay at Embassy Suites Hotel to help cover meeting overhead expenses. Note: If the hotel parking lot is full, meeting attendees may park along Aristides Street in front of the hotel.

The $30 meeting registration fee includes a year's membership in the KVGA, KSHS or OAK and entrance into the Grape & Wine Short Course. Please see the registration form to sign up for the meal functions and the Celebration of Kentucky Wines.

The enclosed pre-registration form enables you to preregister so your tickets and name tag will be ready for you when you arrive at the meeting. NOTE: WE STRONGLY URGE YOU TO PRE-REGISTER. LUNCHEON TICKETS MAY NOT BE AVAILABLE AT THE REGISTRATION DESK. NAME BADGES WILL BE REQUIRED TO ENTER MEETING ROOMS. PRE-REGISTRATION FORMS NEED TO BE IN OUR HANDS BY FRIDAY DECEMBER 20, 2013. Phone registrations will not be accepted. Participants that do not pre-register may register at the door. If you would like to serve on the KVGA or KSHS boards of directors or would like to nominate another member, please designate this on your registration sheet.

If circumstances are such that you cannot attend the meeting, and you would like to remain a member of the KVGA, KSHS, KVS, or OAK, please complete and return the form with a check to Ms. Mary Ann Kelley, Research & Education Center, P.O. Box 469, Princeton, KY 42445 to continue your association membership.

Sincerely,
