crafts, elders, museums, native businesses, indigenous music and other reference materials.

http://www.nativeweb.org/resources

Anthropology Resources

Links to topics in related technology, applied anthropology, archaeology, ethnography, funding opportunities, aboriginal culture, desert culture, paleoanthropology, preservation and restoration professions, discussion groups, libraries, and museums. Related sites in medical anthropology, bioethics, immigration, disabilities, and global health issues.

http://www.aaanet.org/resources

Student Resources and Other Anthropology Links

Anthropology research guide to many general and specific areas of interest to anthropology students. Includes online museums and anthropological collections.

http://www.bu.edu/library/guides/anthro.html

Notes:

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY

Counseling Center

Consultation and Psychological Services

Division of Student Affairs

201 Frazee Hall
Lexington, KY 40506-0031
(859) 257-8701
www.uky.edu/StudentAffairs/Counseling

An Equal Opportunity University.

The purpose of the REALM Series is to make career, personal and learning skills information readily available to students, parents, faculty and staff. The REALM Series supports retention and the academic mission of the University of Kentucky.

Information gathered and compiled by Sandra K. Lybarger, Ph.D. 2006, and updated 2010.

REALM Series: Retention Education Academic Life Management Series

Careers for majors in Anthropology

INTERNET RESOURCES

UK COUNSELING CENTER
Consultation and Psychological Services

Please read before accessing the following information:

The following resources are provided to assist University of Kentucky students and staff in gathering major and career information on the Internet. The University of Kentucky and the Counseling Center are not associated with, nor do they endorse, any of the sources listed.

The University of Kentucky Counseling Center and the brochure author assume no responsibility for the use of this information or the sources. Please do not use/access any of the following sources/links if you do not agree with this policy.

For more assistance with career decision-making, please attend a Career Decision-Making workshop offered weekly at the Counseling Center. The schedule of workshops is available at our website: www.uky.edu/studentaffairs/counseling. You may also call for an individual appointment to discuss your career related concerns (859-257-8701).

UK Department of Anthropology

Includes faculty and their research interests. Links to both undergraduate and graduate programs, the Program for Archaeological Research and the William Webb Museum of Anthropology.

http://web.as.uky.edu/anthropology

What can I do with a major in Anthropology?

Click on the anthropology/archaeology information to connect majors to careers. Lists strategies for getting in to particular career areas.

http://career.utk.edu/students/majors.asp

Students in anthropology learn critical thinking, good decision-making skills, and the ability to work in a culturally diverse environment. This site lists sample occupations and types of employers who hire Anthropology graduates.

http://life.umt.edu/career/Majors/anthropology.php

Major Resource Kits

Links anthropology majors to career alternatives at the bachelor's level as well as the advanced degree level. Links to public policy, the Peace Corps and museum work. Suggests way to enhance employability.

http://www.udel.edu/CSC/ant.html

Careers using Anthropology

Related career titles (including health and human services, research/education, government/public service and business), important skills, career planning web sites and professional associations. Click on Anthropology.

http://www.uncwil.edu/stuaff/career/Majors/anthropology.htm

So you want to be a Forensic Anthropologist?

Typical careers and educational requirements. Information on crime lab work, forensic science, criminology and museum work. List of Internet job sites.

http://www.cas.umt.edu/anthro/areas/forensic.html

Careers in Historical Archaeology

Defines the profession, discusses terrestrial and underwater research. Includes information on work at archaeological sites, historic buildings, shipwrecks, as well as cultural sites important to contemporary Native Americans.

http://www.sha.org/students_jobs

Cultural Resource Management

Information about Cultural Resource Management careers.

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Cultural_resources_management

Careers in Physical Anthropology

Review of academic positions as well as nonacademic positions in applied anthropology, museums, zoos (collection management and endangered species), forensics, government.

http://www.physanth.org/

Anthropology Careers

Regional resources in archaeology, environmental studies, cultural resource analysis, museums, linguistics, market research, natural resources, primatology, zoos, state parks, and international opportunities.

http://anthropology.nku.edu/index.php/careers-in-anthropology

FAQ about a career in Archaeology in the US

Reviews available jobs, required education and training, universities with programs, getting involved with digs. Also lists popular books, professional societies, and web resources for more information.

http://www.museum.state.il.us/ismdepts/anthro/dlcfaq.html

Committee on the Status of Women in Anthropology (COSWA)

Part of the American Anthropological Association web site. Lists its mission, resources. Other general information on this professional society including a jobs/careers section.

http://www.aaanet.org/committees/coswa/

Resources for Indigenous Cultures Around the World

Also called "native web," this informal site links to geographic regional topics, arts, galleries, indigenous