The study by the numbers.

- 60% of students who attended the first round of common hour reviews received an A or a B at midterms!
- 80% of students who attended all three rounds of common hour reviews received a final grade of C or better in their course!
- 82% of students who attended a common hour review as well as tutoring at The Study received a final grade of C or better in their course!
- Common Hour Review Sessions are rapidly approaching. Let us help you knock out your first round of exams!
