Additional Media Coverage

During 1992 and 1993 I received phone calls from radio stations and newspapers in the U.S. and Canada about the political reorganization proposals idea that I developed in 1970. I was interviewed by Joe Garreau of the Washington Post and Robin Wright of The Los Angeles Times among others. (The idea is still intriguing in a rapidly changing geopolitical environment.)

I was interviewed by Channel 4, the National Television Station in Almaty, Kazakstan in October 1996 for their program “Better To Be Rich and Beautiful.” Also interviewed on Kazakstan’s English language radio about an American’s experiences in Kazakstan, May 1997 and in August 2001 by two public radio stations in Pristina, Kosova.

Interviewed by newspapers and television stations in Semey, Kazakhstan during my Fulbright Professorship there fall 2007.

Also occasionally interviewed by local media on various issues.
