

Application Checklist

Send to the Department of Psychology:

- Departmental application. You will find the application in this packet or you can download it from the web at <http://www.uky.edu/AS/Psychology/graduate/formlist.html>.
- A photocopy of GRE scores. It is recommended that you send a photocopy of your scores to the department in order to activate your file at the earliest date. The advanced test for psychology is not required but may be submitted.
- Autobiographical Statement. This statement should describe your personal interests, expectations and goals. It should answer the following questions: What can you see yourself doing in ten years from now? What issues and content areas do you find exciting? What experiences have led you to this orientation? What, if any, past research experience have you had? What kind of research would you like to pursue in graduate school?
- 3 letters of recommendation. Recommenders should be faculty members or psychologists who know you well. We do not use a standardized form for recommendation letters. You may choose to send all letters together with other application materials, to minimize the time it takes to activate your file.
- A photocopy of transcripts. One copy of all college transcripts should be sent to the department. Do not send photocopies to the Graduate School.

Send to The Graduate School:

- Graduate School application. Complete the form titled "The University of Kentucky Graduate School Application for Admission," which can be downloaded or completed online at <http://www.rgs.uky.edu/gs/gsappplication.html>.
- Application fee. The fee is $40 for domestic applicants and $55 for international applicants. A check or money order made payable to The University of Kentucky should accompany the completed Graduate School application to the following address:

The Graduate School
University of Kentucky
106 Gillis Building
Lexington, KY 40506-0033

- One official GRE scores. Arrange to have the Educational Testing Service send one copy of your Graduate Record Examination scores to the Graduate School. No photocopies will be accepted by the Graduate School.
- One official transcript. Send one official transcript directly to the Graduate School to activate your file. Be sure the transcript is sent directly from the University. No student copies will be accepted.
