

Supporting Organizations

Kentucky Forage &
Grasslands Council

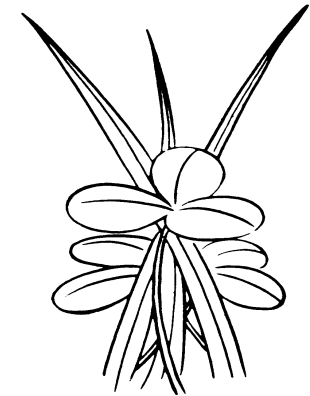

Monroe County
Conservation District

Monroe County
Extension Service

Natural Resources &
Conservation Service

Mammoth Cave
Agriculture Extension
Agents

Kentucky Forage & Grassland Council

Summer Grazing Tour

June 14, 2007
4:00 pm CDT

JOHN HAGAN FARM
Gentry Circle Road
Mt. Hermon, Kentucky

Near Tompkinsville, KY in Monroe County

Speakers

Dr. Garry Lacefield – U.K.
Forage Specialist

Dr. Ray Smith – U.K. Forage
Specialist

Dr. John Johns– U.K. Beef
Specialist

Dr. J.D. Green – U.K.
Extension Weed Scientist

Dr. Bob Coleman – U.K.
Extension Horse Specialist

Terry Hutchens – U.K.
Extension Specialist for Goat Management

Dr. Ken Andries – K.S.U.
Extension Specialist for Goat
Management

Kenny Burdine – U.K.
Livestock / Forage Specialist in
Ag. Economics

Sid Brantly – NRCS State
Grasslands Specialist

Topics

New Innovations In Forages

Developing & Monitoring
Quality Summer Pastures

Mineral Selection for Grazing Beef Cattle

Pasture Weed Control

Grazing Considerations
for Horses

Parasite Control in Goats on Pasture

Managing Pastures for Goat Production

Economics of Rotational Grazing

Using Warm Season Grasses in Rotational Grazing Systems

Directions

From Tompkinsville:

1. Travel north on Hwy. 839 to Sulphur Lick.
2. Turn LEFT onto Hwy. 678 and travel 2.5 miles.
3. Turn LEFT onto Gentry Circle Rd. and travel 1 mile to the farm. Signs will be posted.

From Glasgow:

1. Beginning at the Cumberland Parkway, follow Hwy. 90 east towards Burkesville for 6.8 miles.
2. Turn RIGHT onto Hwy. 839 and travel 9.3 miles.
3. Turn RIGHT on Hwy. 678 and travel 2.5 miles
4. Turn LEFT onto Gentry Circle Rd. and travel 1 mile to the farm. Signs will be posted.

From Bowling Green:

1. Travel north on I-65 and get on the Louie Nunn Cumberland Parkway at Exit 43.
2. Travel towards Glasgow. Take Exit 14 and turn RIGHT onto Hwy. 90 east.
3. Follow Hwy. 90 east towards Burkesville for 6.8 miles.
4. Turn RIGHT onto Hwy. 839 and travel 9.3 miles.
5. Turn RIGHT onto Hwy. 678 and travel 2.5 miles.
6. Turn LEFT onto Gentry Circle Rd. and travel 1 mile to the farm. Signs will be posted.