

Beginners Sheep Shearing School

The University of Kentucky will conduct a “Beginners Sheep Shearing School” on March 29, 2011, at the Animal Research Center Sheep Unit, Versailles, Ky. Students will learn about equipment care and management, wool care, and actual shearing.

Participation will require a registration fee of $75 per person. The number of participants will be limited to 12 because of space limitations. The first 12 to register will be admitted into the school. Registration will be available after March 2, 2011.

The registration form will be found at <http://www.uky.edu/afs/sheep/sheepinfo.html> after March 2, 2011.
