

Myers-Briggs Type Indicator® (MBTI)
Experiencing the 16 Types
November 29-30, 2007

This two-day workshop is designed for those who have already completed the MBTI® qualification program. This popular application workshop is a great refresher course for the seasoned MBTI administrator. The purpose of this workshop is to go beyond Type Theory into practical usage for yourself and with others.

About the Training

You will study the eight perceiving and eight judging dominant patterns and learn about communicating, teaching and learning styles. You will also study the eight mental functions and four temperaments and learn about team analysis and problem solving. In addition, you will receive reproducible handouts and a two-page description of each type code.

Pre-requisite: Complete online Exploring You® assessment before program start date and have completed and passed the MBTI qualification program.

About the Trainer

This training program will be led by Amy Hadady, MA, of Type Resources of Effectiveness Enhancement, Inc. Type Resources is the leader and innovator of qualifying programs for psychological assessment tools. Ms. Hadady is a career counselor, leadership trainer, and education specialist with more than 15 years experience training corporate teams and using the MBTI® to develop leadership and improve communications skills.
