

Sense of Place (Due January 18th – Tuesday)

Think about a place that is significant to you personally.

Then, in 1- 2 typed pages (double-spaced), please complete the following:

a. Describe the place - Locate it geographically -- where is it on the map? Provide enough description to give a reader who has never been there a sense of what it would be like to visit this place -- engage the reader's senses.

Also, tell about one of your visits to this spot or explain the types of activities you have done over time during visits to this place.

b. Explain its significance - Tell the reader why this place has meaning for you. Why do you have a personal attachment to this place?
