POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT NO. 06-59F27

---

- Position: Assistant or Associate Professor of Forestry (Entomology/Pathology)
(pending budgetary approval)
- Position Description: This is a nine-month academic year full time teaching position. The successful applicant will teach forest entomology; forest pathology; introductory natural resource courses and graduate level courses. Teaching 3 to 6 weeks during the summer at the College of Natural Resources Treehaven Field Station or in the European Summer Program for additional compensation is required. Opportunities exist for involvement in research, outreach and international programs to meet University scholarship and service requirements.
- Description: The Forestry discipline is in the College of Natural Resources University of Wisconsin at Stevens Point (www.cnr.uwsp.edu). The College supports premier undergraduate natural resources programs. It has approximately 1300 undergraduate majors, 120 graduate students, and over 100 faculty and staff. The forestry major has on average 325 undergraduates. The University of Wisconsin at Stevens Point is a comprehensive regional university with 8,400 undergraduate and 400 graduate students. Stevens Point, a pleasant college community, is midway between Milwaukee and Minneapolis near the center of the state with a population of about 25,000. The area offers a wide range of cultural, shopping and outdoor recreational opportunities.
- Qualifications: Ph.D. earned or near completion emphasizing forest entomology or forest pathology is required. An undergraduate degree in forestry is desirable. Preference will be given for field experience, diagnostic experience in forest entomology or forest pathology, demonstrated excellence in undergraduate teaching, demonstrated ability to work with students in field applications, and applied research. Experience in and a desire to work with diverse populations of learners and stakeholders is desirable.
- Appointment Date: May 21, 2006, or as soon as possible thereafter.
- Terms of Employment: Assistant or Associate Professor in Forestry, tenure track, full-time, academic year appointment (9 months). Salary is commensurate with education and professional experience.
- Application Procedure: Send hard copies of an application letter, a resume, transcripts of academic work, 3 letters of reference, a statement of teaching philosophy and a statement of scholarly interest to: Dr. Richard L. Geesey, Chair Forestry Search and Screen Committee, College of Natural Resources, University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point, Stevens Point, Wisconsin 54481.
- Deadline: Screening of applicants will begin on February 1, 2006. The search to fill the position will continue until the position is filled. For more information contact Dr. Richard L. Geesey at 715-346-4160, or rgeesey@uwsp.edu. Women, minorities, veterans, and individuals with disabilities are encouraged to apply.

The University of Wisconsin - Stevens Point is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. Women, minorities, Vietnam era veterans, disabled veterans, and individuals with disabilities are encouraged to apply.

Under a court approved settlement agreement and Wisconsin Statutes, we are required to provide a list of all nominees and applicants who have not requested in writing (addressed to the UWSP Equity & Affirmative Action Office) that their identity not be revealed. Persons agreeing to be final candidates will have their identity revealed as a final candidate.
