

Department of Forestry
College of Natural Resources
Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University
Blacksburg, VA 24061

Assistant Professor, Natural Resources Education and Communication

Type of Appointment: Nine-month, academic-year, tenure-track appointment located in Blacksburg, Virginia

Responsibilities: Teaching and research in natural resources education/communication/interpretation and recreation:

- Teach undergraduate course(s)
- Teach graduate-level course(s) related to research interests
- Conduct research and publish the results in refereed literature
- Acquire external grants and contracts to fund an innovative research program
- Advise undergraduate students and supervise graduate students
- Participate in outreach programs of the department and college
- Participate in university service and governance

Qualifications: Required: Ph.D. with emphasis in natural resources education, communication, interpretation, or recreation, Desired: At least one degree in a renewable natural resources-related discipline; professional experience in development and evaluation of education, communication, and interpretation programs applied to recreation and natural resources management situations.

Salary: Commensurate with education and experience

Deadline: Review of applications will begin on March 15, 2006, and continue until a suitable candidate is selected.

Starting Date: Negotiable, with a target of July 1, 2006

Application Procedure: Online application is required via the Virginia Tech Human Resources website (www.hr.vt.edu)
Search "Available Jobs," Posting Number 060006

For additional information about this position, please contact:

Dr. Bruce Hull
Virginia Tech Department of Forestry
(540) 231-7272 hullrb@vt.edu

Virginia Tech has a strong commitment to the principle of diversity and, in that spirit, seeks a broad spectrum of candidates, including women, minorities, and people with disabilities. Individuals with disabilities desiring accommodations in the application process should notify Harold E. Burkhardt, Head, Department of Forestry (540-231-6952 Voice/1-800-828-1120 VTRS), by the application deadline.