

Internship Opportunity – Spring 2006

The National Association of State Foresters is seeking a qualified candidate for an internship opportunity in Washington, DC.

Who Should Apply: Advanced undergraduate or graduate students at accredited forestry schools with strong interest in forest policy. Outstanding writing skills and ability to work quickly are absolutely necessary. NASF representatives will work with your academic institution to arrange for academic credit. Preference will be given to applicants who are receiving academic credit for the internship.

Duties: Attend and report on Congressional hearings on forestry and natural resources issues, interact with a wide variety of forest policy makers. Work with Legislative Assistant to assist in legislative tracking. Attend other meetings with agency and interest group representatives as necessary. Assist with NASF Washington office duties as needed.

Stipend: The selected candidate will be paid a stipend of $250.00 per week. No other benefits will be provided. NASF encourages interested candidates to work with their academic institution to arrange financial aid.

Starting/Ending Dates: On or around January 17 until May 13, 2006. Dates are negotiable for a 17 week period. The successful Candidate will be notified of a decision by November 2, 2005.

How to Apply: Send resume, letter describing your interests, professional goals, and three references to:
