

Time passes and soon it was time to fly home

Reflecting on the past
ten days, some things
become apparent.

Students really do love
trees!

They really appreciated David as our guide.

Some secrets can be revealed on long coach
rides.

Apparently, Sarah has a secret identity.

Shari drives a hard bargain when a fabric belt is involved.

It can be hard to keep Sarah out of your pictures

Grande was a nickname well earned.

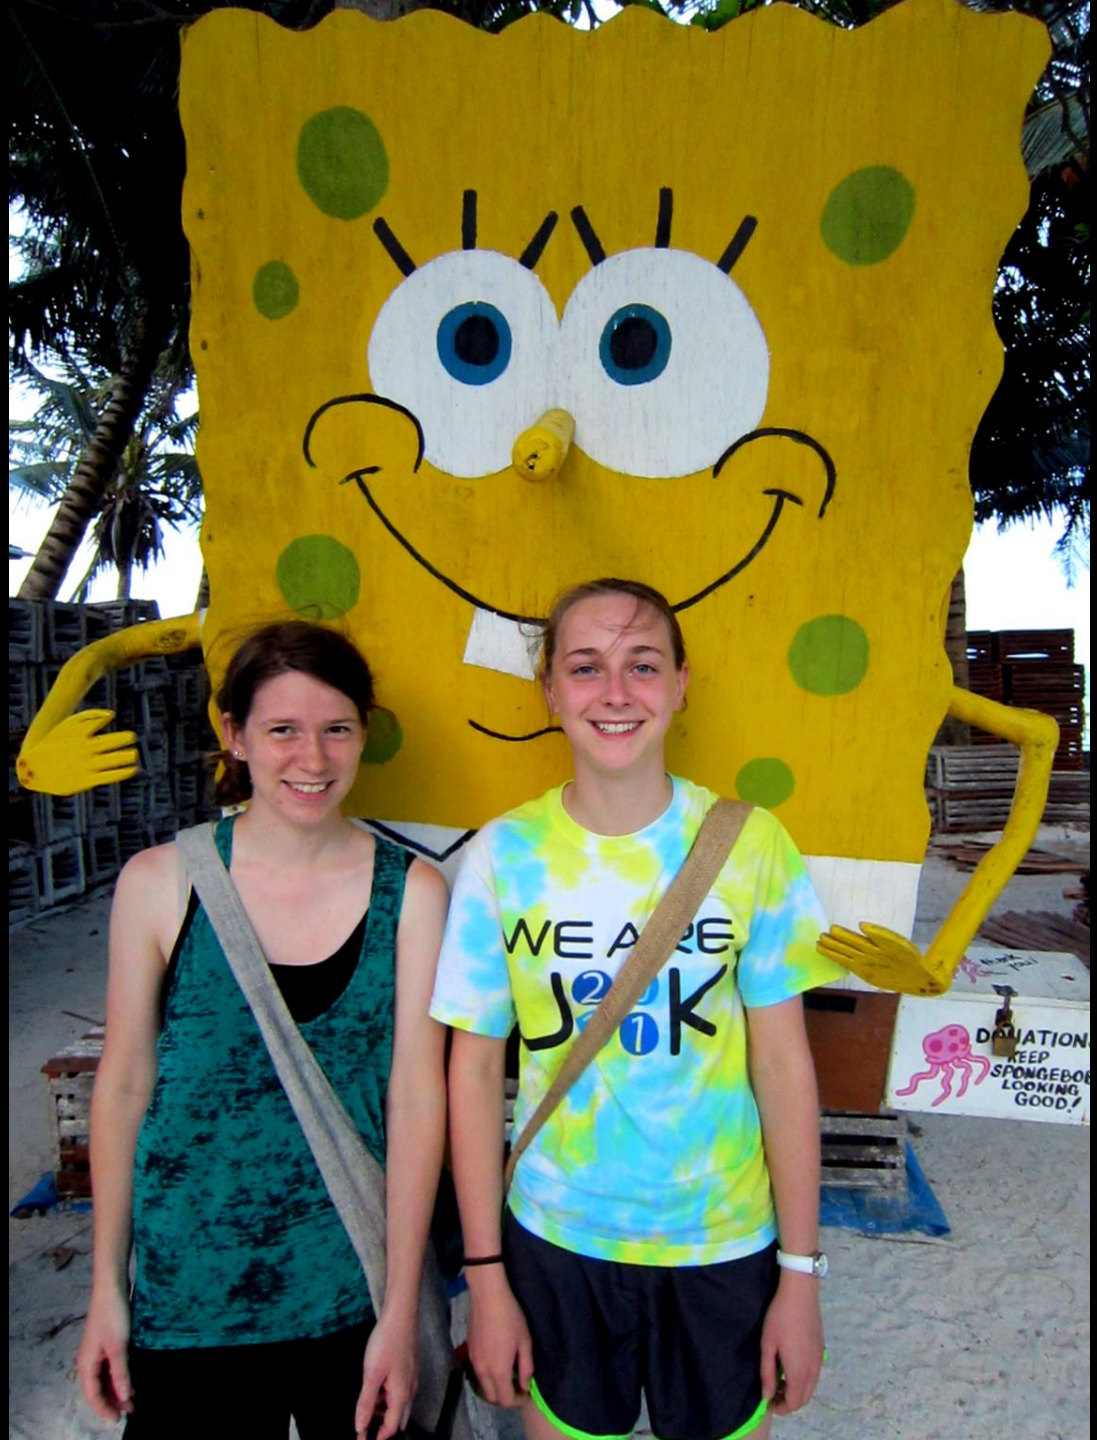

Katie really liked sailing

Katie and Olivia had a hard time resisting the allure of Sponge Bob on the beach.

Patrick really likes the ocean

Olivia is actually a cowgirl who raises
rodeo bulls.

And really likes hats.

In hindsight, a few too early mornings were planned on the trip.

But apparently, students can sleep anywhere when covered in sunburn and a Guatemalan fabric.

Cancun Airport