

Edinburgh, Scotland

Rocky crag with yellow flowering gorse (Ulex).

Outlook Tower and Highland Church

St. Giles Church

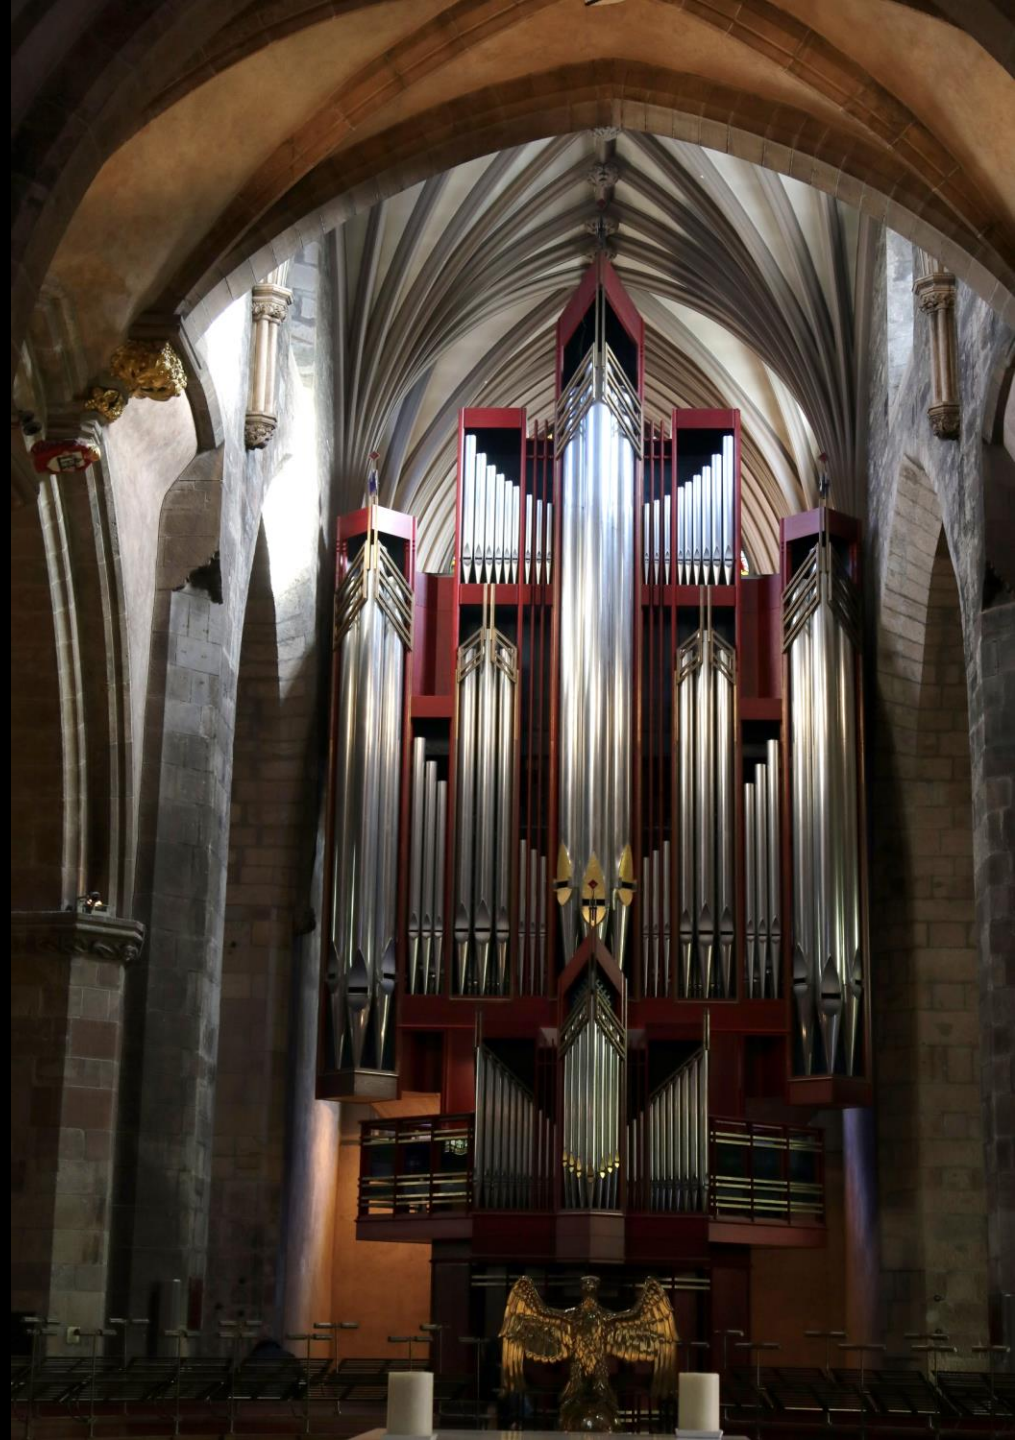

St. Giles Church

In Memory of Alexander Clapperton Merchant

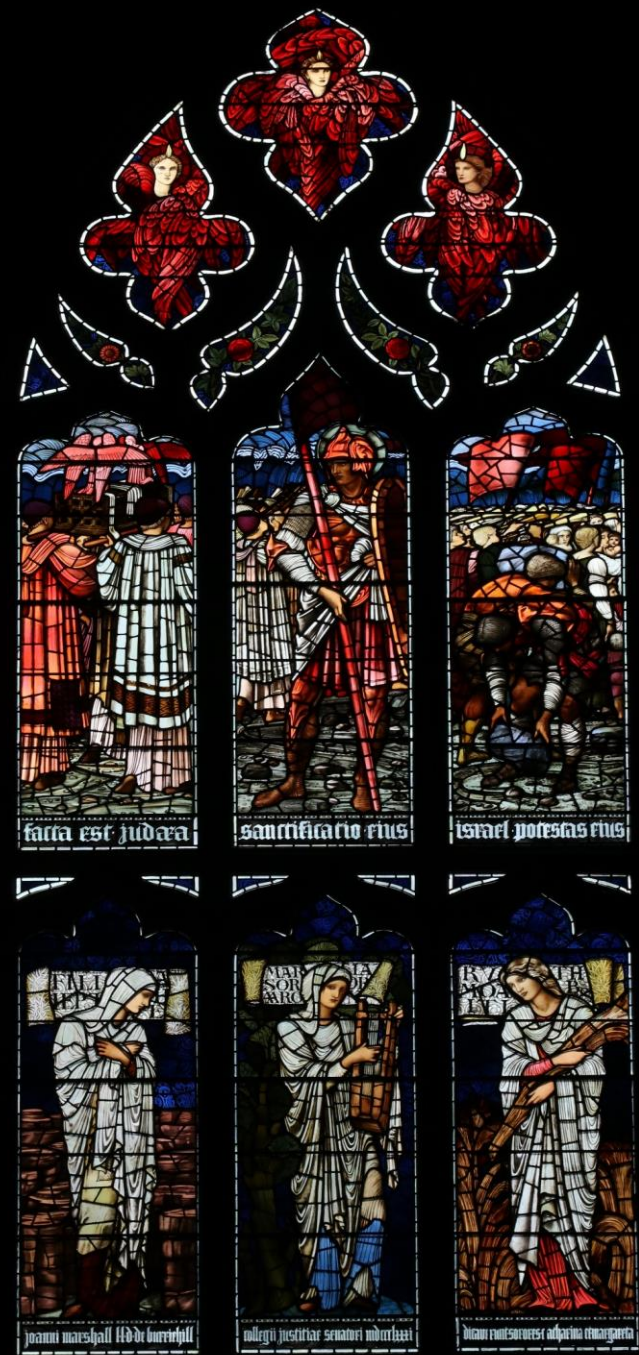

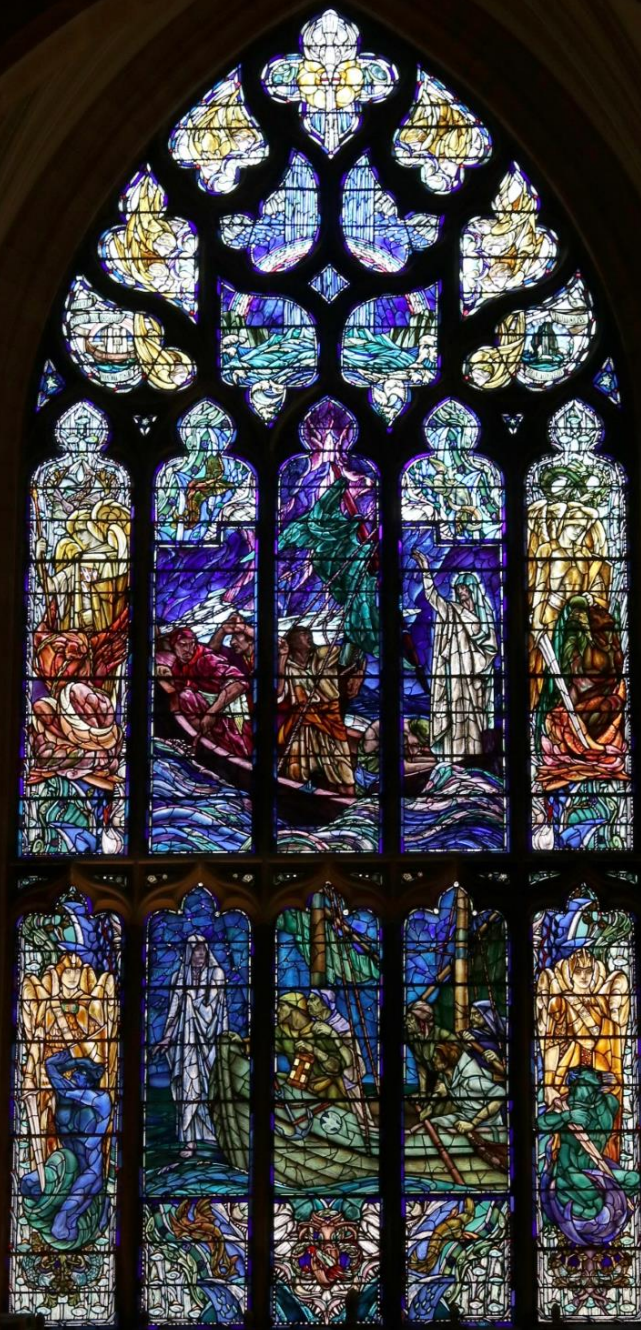

Edinburgh Born 1782 Died 1849 and Ann Dume

His Wife Born 1792 Died 1873 * Erected by their Sons John and Alex. Clapperton 1874

The Royal Mile is the main road in Old Edinburgh.

Scottish street
entertainment.

"Traditional Scottish Spinning"

Our hotel was around the corner from the colorful West Bow Street.

West Bow Street.

First meal in Europe was at the Maison Bleue on
West Bow street.

Edinburgh Castle

The group entering the Castle through the Portcullis Gate.

The Lion on a shield is the Royal Coat of Arms for England.

Unicorns and Thistle represent Royal Scotland.

The Royal Coat of Arms for the United Kingdom has a pair of Unicorns for Scotland and the Lion for England.

St. Margaret's Chapel
(12th Century).

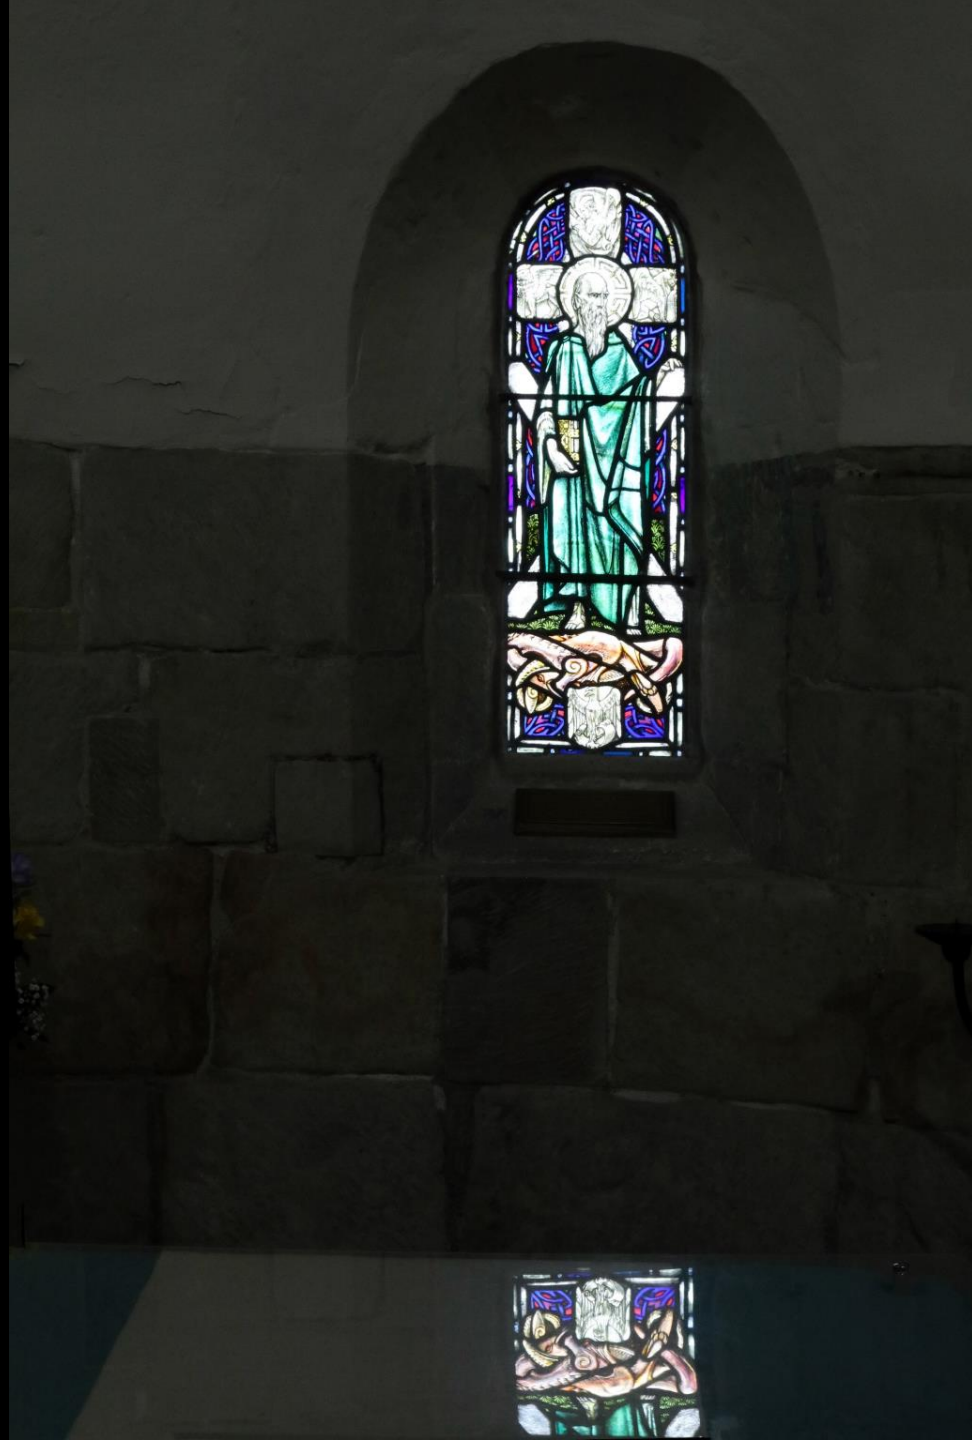

St. Margaret

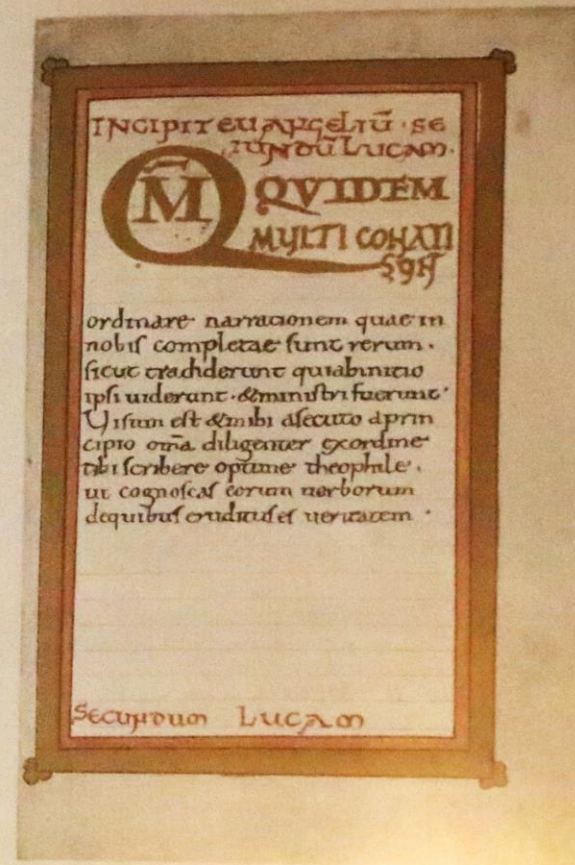

St. Andrew

St. Columba

A facsimile of St. Margaret's Chapel gospel book that is at the Bodleian Library in Oxford where we visited later in the tour.

The Scottish
National War
Memorial Shrine.

The Scottish
National War
Memorial from Crown Square.

Lion and Shield at the War Memorial.

Grace with the Royal Scots Guard.

The Royal Palace in Crown Square.

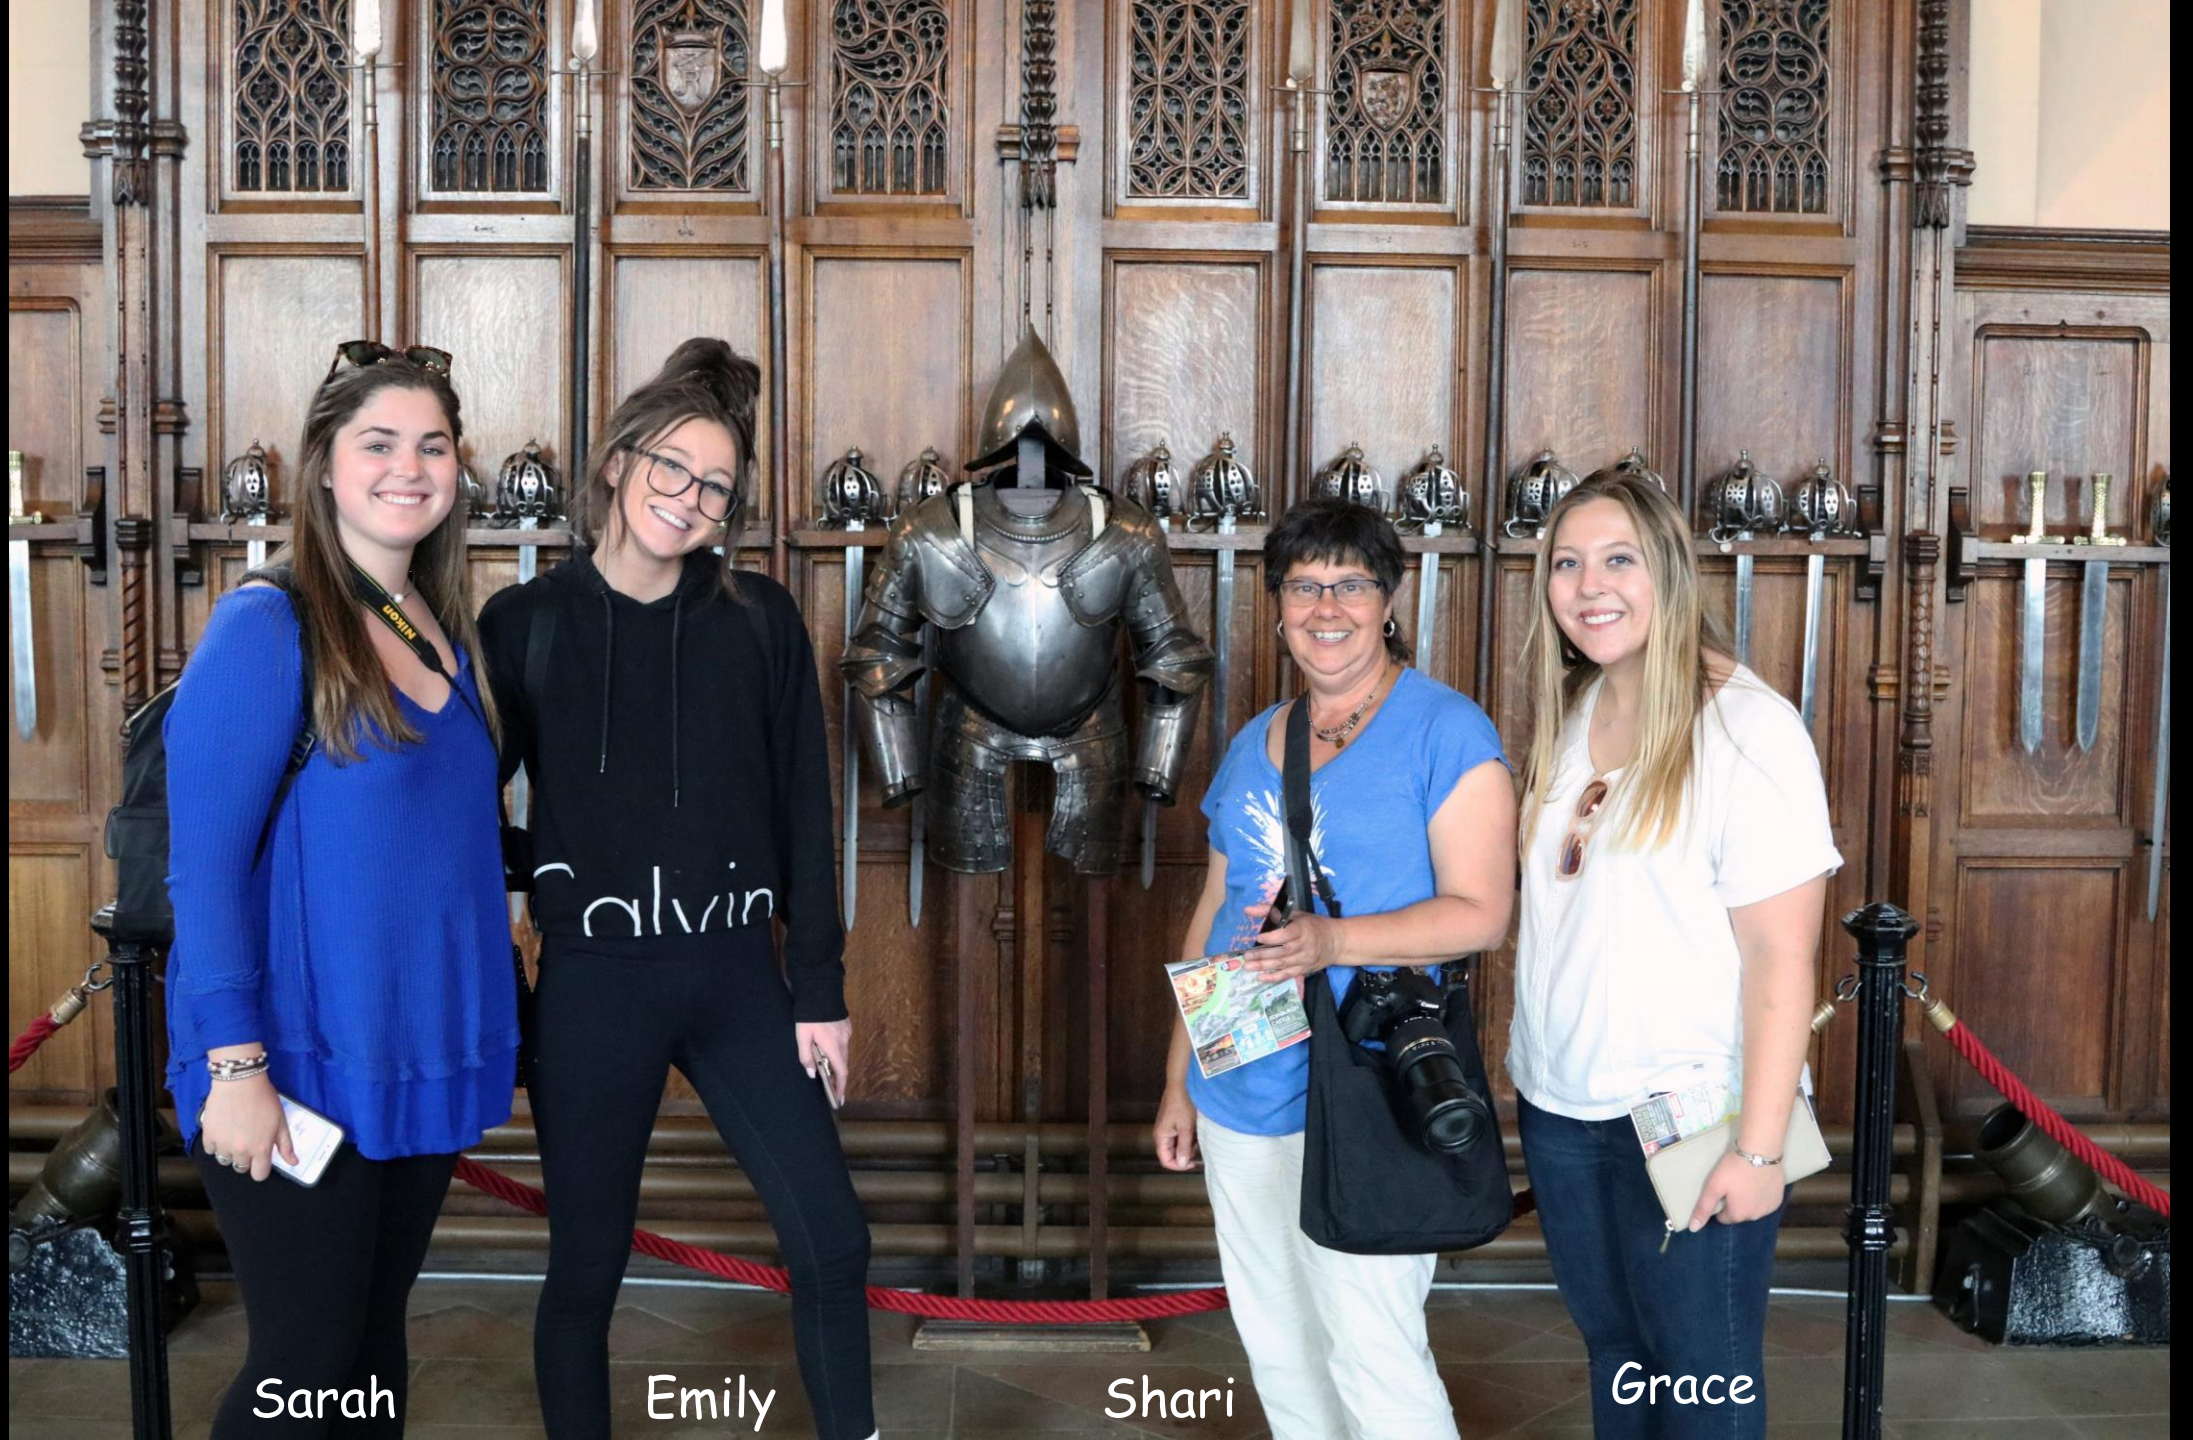

The Great Hall.

Sarah

Emily

Shari

Grace

The Half
Moon Battery.

The Mills Mount Battery.

Barrack's room

The Foog Gate

Dress-up at Edinburg Castle.

