

Kinderdijk is a World Heritage site with traditional near Rotterdam.

In the Netherlands, Windmills were primarily used to pump water on the canals, but also used to mill grains and grind minerals for creating paints.

This windmill
dates to 1738.

One of the mills was open to the public.

Poffertjes - Dutch mini
pancakes.

