

2009 New Crop Opportunities, KY, funded projects

Horticulture

Evaluation of Natural Sprays for Control of Economically Important Foliar and Fruit Diseases of Tomato and Cucurbits

Marketing Nutrition for Kentucky Produce

Increasing Fertilizer Efficiency with an Automated Pulsed Irrigation System

Annualized Perennial Production: An Untapped Opportunity for Kentucky's Greenhouse Growers

Developing an Optimized Production System for Fresh Market Sweet Onion Production in Kentucky

Specialty Grains

Developing a Biomass Energy Crop Trial for Renewable Energy Production

Soft White Winter Wheat in Kentucky: Impact of Seed Coat Color Genes on Added Value and Resistance to Mycotoxins

Response of Hulless and Hulled Barley Grain Yield and Composition to Nitrogen Fertility

Sweet Sorghum Improvement

Whole Farm Analysis of Edamame Production in Kentucky

No-till Cropping Systems for Organic and Sustainable Corn and Soybean Production