"DEDICATED TO MAKING THE INDUSTRY BETTER"

THE GREENLINE QUARTERLY

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA. IN 2005!

Charlottesville, Va. Is 100 miles from Williamsburg, Va. It was the hometown of Thomas Jefferson, James Madison and James Monroe and so much more. Look at the back of your nickels and see one of our 2005 attractions, or see below and get to view the real thing.

In 2004, the Southern Plant Board met 100 miles away in Williamsburg, Va. We took an agricultural tour of the settlement. This shot shows one of our newest members as he listens intently to the colonist explain how they controlled insects on their plants in Williamsburg with nicotine sulfate dip. If you come early or stay late after the meeting, you can see it also. It would be well worth your time.

Second Story Headline: Soybean Rust is coming!

Because of the Hurricane Ivan last year we have received Soybean rust in our country. Ivan started as a tropical storm in Africa which has had rust since 1996. Luckily, it was at the end of last season and perhaps we will not have a problem this coming year, but the threat to grain and vegetable producing states looms. Currently it is known that it will live in Crimson clover, Kudzu, and many legumes. If you would like to read more about the Asian Soybean Rust, go to: www.extensionplantclinics.msstate.edu & Click on "Soybean Rust Summary".

See The Editor's Roundup: For recent states' concerns.

~MONTICELLO IN THE WINTER~

Monticello is the home of Thomas Jefferson, and is probably one of the most recognizable houses in the United States. When you come to the 2005 HISSC meeting YOU will get to tour the house and grounds! This is a 3/1/05 photo. Tom said they just got 6 inches of snow!

Tom, your snow is really beautiful, but I love my daffodils blooming down here in March. See you soon!

<http://www.monticello.org/>

Monticello is situated on 1060 acres. This above website will take you thru history and will also give you a day by day "tour" of his life.

Did you know that Thomas Jefferson as president was responsible for the purchasing of Louisiana Territory from France? Most of our states came from it for only $15 Million! Look on the above site and it shows some of the actual documents that were written up by Lewis & Clark and others. All this information is going to be in Charlottesville.

Montpelier is James Madison's home and the grounds cover 2700 acres. We will tour them and probably the house. James Madison. He was given the title of "Father of the Constitution" by his colleagues. See: <http://www.montpelier.org/pages/history/madisons.htm>
