

FOR 100 Students,

A copy of the U.S. Forest Service video, "The Greatest Good," is available for you to watch at Audio Visual Services (in the basement of W. T. Young Library). The DVD's call number is AV-D5624. You cannot take the video out of the library, but you can watch it in one of the viewing rooms maintained by Audio Visual Services.

During class time, we have watched the first ~35 minutes of this ~124-minute video. If you would like to see the rest of it, please go to Young Library and watch it there.

If you were not in class on Thursday, 24 August, and/or Tuesday, 29 August, you missed some or all of the first 35 minutes of "The Greatest Good." You will need to go to Audio Visual Services and watch it from the beginning through "Part I: The Fight for Conservation."

Happy viewing,
Dave Wagner
