

FOR 100 (Section 002; TR 11:00 am – 12:15 pm): Oral Presentation Topics and Dates (Fall 2007)

Thursday, 15 November

- Diane Dawson      What is the best soil to plant in?
- Katy Mershon      Kentucky Division of Forestry
- Zach Rawlings      What are some examples of international forestry policy collaboration?
- Tim Cook      Carbon sequestration in forests
- Kevin Miller      Mourningcloak butterfly: identification, geographic range, tree species host range, ecology, and consequences

Tuesday, 20 November

- Luke Lautzenheiser      Dutch elm disease: identification, cause, geographic range, tree species affected, and consequences
- Leland Ferris      How is fire managed/used in Georgia pine forests?
- Scott Waxman      What is the state of the national forests in the Southwest, particularly in the high deserts of New Mexico?
- Chase Clark      Daniel Boone National Forest: description of the forest (history; location; geography; topography, geology; animal, plant, and water resources; ranger districts)
- Dan Hollar      Coast redwood: identification, geographic range, ecology, and uses

Tuesday, 27 November

- Zach Wheeler      Glacier National Park
- Matt Hinds      How closely can the government regulate what takes place in our national forests?
- Jacob Beard      Kaibab National Forest
- Jonathan Bik      Kentucky Forest Conservation Act
- Blake Hatcher      How is grazing regulated by the forest service?

Thursday, 29 November

- Daniel Carcara      Caribbean National Forest
  - Patrick Irvan      Dendrochronology (do tree rings really reveal tree ages?)
  - Drew Billups      Live oak: identification, geographic range, ecology, and uses
  - Brett Aaron      Elk re-establishment in Eastern Kentucky
  - Austin Van Meter      Davy Crockett National Forest
-