

Curator Extraordinaire Rubric: Contemporary Art Culminating Event

CATEGORY	Curator extraordinaire	Curator-in-museum training	Curator earning a degree	Curator headed back to study
Characteristics	The student's work identifies several characteristics of Contemporary American Art found in their chosen pieces of artwork.	The student's work identifies a couple of characteristics of Contemporary American Art found in their chosen piece of artwork.	The student's work identifies one characteristic of Contemporary American Art.	The student's work shows his/her difficulty in identifying any characteristics of Contemporary American Art.
Influence of culture	The student's work gives several detailed examples of how the contemporary issues in society influenced the artist's work.	The student's work gives a couple of examples of how the contemporary issues in society influenced the artist's work.	The student's work gives one example of how the contemporary issues in society influenced the artist's work.	The student's work shows his/her difficulty in describing contemporary issues in society influenced the artist's work.
Museum Education	The student's work offers a couple of examples of what museum visitors can learn from this piece of art and why it should be added to the museum collection.	The student's work offers one example of what museum visitors can learn from this piece of art and why it should be added to the museum collection	The student's work offers one example of what museum visitors can learn from this piece of art.	The student's work is unable to offer an example of what museum visitors can learn from this piece of art.

Rubric format used from Rubistar.com