

SEAHO Silent Auction for Lexington Charity!

You are invited to join the AUCTION ACTION!

New at the conference this year, the SEAHO Human Relations Committee will be hosting a Silent Auction. Proceeds from the auction will support local charities in Lexington!

The Silent Auction will start at the SEAHO Social on Wednesday night, continue Thursday morning and end at 1pm on Thursday.

Winners will be announced at 1:45pm on Thursday after the Associates Drawings!

WE NEED YOUR HELP! Please join us in making our SEAHO Silent Auction a success – we would like every school to donate something for bid at the Auction. All types of donations are welcome! We hope every institution can contribute at least one item – individual contributions are very welcome as well! This could be a great group effort to get ready for the conference!

Some Donation Suggestions:

- University Memorabilia
- Autographed items
- Artwork
- Collectibles
- Scrapbooking or stamping supplies (or other activity sets)
- Educational Resources/books/manuals
- Wine or wine accessories
- Services (Speakers, program presentations, organizational consultations)
- Clothing accessories (jewelry, ties, jackets)
- Tickets, Trips, Gift Certificates
- Sweatshirts, Jackets, Blankets

ANYTHING else you would like to bring!

Please bring your item to the Conference Registration when you arrive or directly to the Silent Auction Tables Wednesday night after dinner. If your item is a donation of a service, feel free to print a 'certificate of service' and/or a description of the service offered (be sure to include your contact information for whomever wins your services).

If you have any questions about what to donate or other questions about the SEAHO Silent Auction – please contact SEAHO HR Committee co-chairs Sarah Chapman (chapmansa@appstate.edu) or Miguel Hernandez (mahernandez@admin.fsu.edu)
