

Film Showing 'ABDUCTION The Megumi Yokota Story'

めぐみー引き裂かれた家族の30年

Tuesday September 29th 6:30 pm
W.T.Young Library Auditorium
University of Kentucky
Free and open to the public

JAPAN, 1977. A dark, lonely road leads to the windswept shores. This is the remarkable story of a 13-year-old Japanese girl abducted on her way home from school by North Korean spies. For 20 years, her parents had no idea what had happened to her or if she was even alive. Then, one day the whole world learned the shocking truth.

An extraordinary tale of mystery, intrigue and most of all, love. The film is told through the eyes of the girl's mother and father who have been searching for their daughter for nearly 30 years. The film begins with the day Megumi vanishes, traces the astonishing course this personal tragedy takes, as it becomes a battle between two nations, rising to a shocking climax.

A human story about a strange, painful journey, full of bizarre twists as an ordinary banker and his housewife are caught up in a life they could never have imagined. Ultimately, ABDUCTION is a moving, emotional testament to the unbreakable bonds of love.

Color, running time 85 minutes, documentary

Cosponsored by : The Consulate-General of Japan in Nashville

Contact

The Asia Center
 304 Bradley Hall
 University of Kentucky
 Lexington, KY 40506

859-257-7858
 (Fax) 859-323-1026
www.uky.edu/Centers/Asia/

在ナッシュビル日本国総領事館
Consulate-General of Japan
 at Nashville

