

Event Archives 2002

2002

- October 10: Asia Center inaugural lecture: Sydney Rittenberg on "The Chinese Communist Party, Past and Future."
- October 11: Asia Center hosts a gathering of Kentucky college faculty with interests in Asia to discuss state-wide cooperation; they visit Warwick, the Clay Lancaster estate, to learn about his life and work.
- October 12: Asia Center hosts a teacher workshop on Asia, with a focus on Japan.
- October 14: Asia Center representatives participate in the Georgetown College Chinese Cultural Festival.
- October 21: Journalism student Pakawan Tarakam films news feature on the Asia Center, which is shown several times on the UK TV channel.
- November 1: Asia Center Visiting Fellow He Xingqiong participates in Dance Mosaic in downtown Lexington. Beginning with a performance at Glendover Global Studies School in Lexington on October 24, 2002 and ending with a demonstration on June 12, 2003 for the Asia Center Teachers' Workshop, Ms. He makes over forty school and community appearances to demonstrate Chinese dance
- November 5: Asia Center hosts lecture by Donald Clark of Trinity University on "Christianity in Korea."
- November 9: Asia Center hosts visiting scholars from Guizhou, China, who are in residence at Oakland University in Michigan.
- November 23: Visiting Fellow He Xingqiong performs in the UK Dance Ensemble Fall Concert.
- Fall semester: The Asia Center supports travel of three faculty members and one graduate student to conferences on and/or in Asia; provides letter of support for grant to promote institutional cooperation between UK and Kyrgyz National University.