

Event Archives 2007

- January: Asia Center visiting fellow, J.P. Park begins teaching two Art History courses
A Teaching about Asia seminar begins at Northern Kentucky University
- February 4: The Asia Center co-sponsors a Noh workshop and performance at Georgetown College
- February 5: The Sichuan Youth Friendship Dance Troupe performs at UK, sponsored by the Asia Center
- February 12: Art Historian, Mari Takamatsu, gives a lecture, "The Nanban Screens: Pictorial Fantasies of Europeans in Early Seventeenth Century Japan," co-sponsored by the Asia Center and Japan Studies.
- February 22: Historian Sayuri Shimizu of Michigan State University gives a lecture as part of Arts and Sciences Week: "Transpacific Baseball: Baseball in U.S.-Japan Relations before WWII."
- March 2: The Asia Center co-sponsors a lecture by Bert Winther-Tamaki of UC-Irvine: "The Transnational Genre of the Nude: Koide Narashige."
- March 23: Terry Miller of Kent State delivers a musicology lecture, "Ballroom Dance and the Development of Popular Music in Southeast Asia."
- March 27: The Asia Center co-sponsors a filmed town-hall discussion, "Citizen Kentucky/ Citizen China: Exploring a World of Ideas."
- March 29: The Asia Center co-sponsors a showing of the film, "Hidden Warriors: the Women of the Ho Chi Minh Trail" at the Kentucky Theater.
- April 1: Dr. K.H. Han directs his 5th Concert of World Music and Dance featuring Chinese percussion, Steel Band, Balinese Gamelan and Indian Dance.
- April 2: Guest performer, Qian Yi, gives a lecture/ demonstration of Chinese Kun Opera.
- May 2: The Asia Center co-sponsors an on-campus showing of films and puppetry from an Appalshop-Indonesia exchange program
- September 29: Kentucky Secondary teachers and invited guests perform Thai, Chinese, Indonesian, and Filipino folk music
- October 6: The second annual KY Asian Studies Association meeting is hosted by the University of Louisville featuring a lecture by Sumit Ganguly, of University of Illinois, on "Democratization in India"
- October 10-13: The Asia Center co-sponsored the "Making Sense of the Vietnam Wars Conference", honoring UK History faculty member emeritus, George Herring.
- October 29: The Asia Center sponsors a lecture by Bill Tsutsui, University of Kansas, entitled "Sunrise, Sunset; Japan in the American Imagination Since WWII."