

New Graduate Students

You can spend your first few days on campus by:

- Reading the campus map
- Trying to figure out where to park
- Going from place to place to find out details about campus life

OR

You can save a lot of stress and avoid exhaustion by attending the New Graduate Student Resource Fair, where you will find almost everything you need in one place. You can talk with people who are focused on the specific needs of new graduate students and who have brought together the information and resources you need to get off to a good start at UK.

Begin your graduate experience at UK the smart way. Enjoy free pizza and meet faculty, staff and other graduate students while exploring the wealth of resources and opportunities that UK and the Lexington area offer you — in a format designed to meet your needs.

Participants will include resources such as: the Graduate School, the Office of International Affairs, Student Insurance, Parking, Student Billing, Student Employment, Graduate Student Housing, Student Activities Board, the UK Credit Union, Food Services, Immigration, Sponsored Projects, Preparing Future Faculty, the Writing Center, Campus Computing, Registration, the Ombud's Office, Campus Security, the Career Center, Disability Services, the Student ID Office, Dean of Students Office, Counseling & Testing, and many others...
