Survivors step ahead; memorial takes form

By the time I was up to the 78th floor, I basically felt a little panicked after they saw the papers flying. I saw a police helicopter, something that I'd never even thought anything less than that. Plans run into the building all the time." Brian Branco was at work on one corner of the World Trade Center site in New York City, the new Freedom Tower is 55 stories high now, heading for 190. This was on Tuesday morning, and he had been mad at home since Friday. Brian Branco had a new sports car, “and he absolutely refused to let me drive his stupid car. And I wanted to take it Friday night and he absolutely refused to let me drive his stupid car.”

Big-time aluminum can thief arrested

A Hohenwald man was arrested last week on charges that he stole 1,200 pounds of aluminum cans and 12 volatile batteries from the Hickman County Solid Waste Transfer Station in Centertown early in August. Officer Charles Pierce reported that Casey R. Givens, 34, of Hohenwald, was charged with two counts of burglary – taking 600-pound bales of cans, about August 1 and 2 – as well as the theft of the batteries.
