Midway College Awards Degrees to Class of 2015

Midway College held its annual Commencement ceremony on May 9 and presented diplomas to 302 graduates. The event featured a keynote address from the Education Minister for the Republic of Panama, the Honorable Ing. Marcela Paredes de Vásquez.

"Commencement is always one of the highlights of the academic year at Midway," said Dr. John P. Marsden, President. "It's an honor to be part of a special day for men and women who have proven that, with perseverance and determination, they can improve their lives through higher education."

The Class of 2015 will be the last to graduate from Midway College as the school will transition to Midway University on July 1.

About Midway College

Midway College is a private college established in 1847. Originally named the Kentucky Female Orphan School, the original purpose of the institution was to educate female orphans to become teachers. Through the years the school evolved and became Pinkerton High School, Midway Junior College, and finally Midway College. Today Midway College remains Kentucky's only college for women offering a unique living, learning environment for women to earn their undergraduate degree. In addition, the college provides co-educational accelerated adult undergraduate and graduate programs in the evenings and online.
