

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

Alumni Hall of Fame

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

The University of Kentucky College of Education is seeking nominations for our Alumni Hall of Fame. Since 1923, the College of Education has been a distinguished institution in the preparation of skilled educators and leaders. Our alumni have embarked on professional careers that impact people and policies in Kentucky, the nation, and the world.

Membership in the Alumni Hall of Fame is the highest honor the College of Education bestows upon its graduates. It is recognition for those whose work has reached the pinnacle of achievement in their chosen profession.

Nominations which identify distinguished and noted Education graduates and recognize their extraordinary contributions are carefully considered by a special committee selected by the College of Education Dean and in consultation with UK's President and Provost.

Award presentation is Friday, October 26, 2007.

CRITERIA

The criteria for induction states that the nominees must:

1. Have earned a degree from the University of Kentucky College of Education or have completed a significant amount of academic work in the college;
2. Have obtained significant achievement personally or professionally;
3. Have demonstrated distinguished accomplishments and leadership in their chosen field of endeavor; and
4. Have evidenced of strong support for the field of education

The nominator must submit a brief letter describing their candidate's qualifications and any other pertinent information, such as resume, professional biosketch, or vitae.
