

5.2.4.5 Participation in Intercollegiate Athletics The University accepts the eligibility rules for intercollegiate athletics as set up by the Southeastern Conference, National Collegiate Athletics Association, Region II, the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women, and the Kentucky Women's Intercollegiate Conference. (US:4/4/76)

5.2.4.6 "Dead Week"

- A. The last week of a regular semester is termed "Dead Week." In the rest of these Rules, this term also refers to the last three days of a summer session, a summer term, and a winter intersession. The last week of instruction is termed "Dead Week".
- B. No final examinations may be given during the Dead Week.
- C. In cases of "Take Home" final examinations, students shall not be required to return the completed examination before the regularly scheduled examination period for that course.
- D. No examinations may be scheduled during the Dead Week.
- E. Only quizzes that are regularly scheduled at least as frequently as every other week and listed in the syllabus and all have equal weights will be allowed during the Dead Week.
- F. No project/lab practicals/paper/presentation deadline shall be scheduled to fall during the Dead Week unless it was scheduled in the syllabus.
- G. Make-up exams are allowed during Dead Week.

5.2.4.67 Final Examinations If a final examination is to be given, it will be administered during the examination period as scheduled by the ~~University~~ Registrar for the semesters of the regular school year. These examination periods will utilize the last 5 days of each semester, and will be preceded by a study day or weekend on which no classes or examinations for weekday classes will be scheduled. Final examinations for weekend classes will be administered the weekend before this 5 day period and need not be preceded by a study day. [US: 4/9/01]

Final examinations, where appropriate, will be administered during the last class day of the intersession and the summer session.

~~During the last week of classes of a regular session or during the three-day period prior to the last day of class of Intersession or Summer School, no examination shall be given except for laboratory practicals or "make-up" examinations. In cases of "Take Home" final examinations, students shall not be required to return the completed examination before the regularly scheduled examination period. (US: 4/28/86)~~

~~* 1. This rule does not allow the instructor to schedule final examinations during the last week of class.~~

~~— 2. This rule does not allow the instructor to schedule "major" examinations during the last week of — class.~~

~~— 3. As the rule is currently written, a "quiz" (either scheduled or unannounced) would be an — "examination" within~~

~~— the meaning of this rule and would not be allowed during the last week of class.~~

~~— 4. The following would not be excluded from the last week of class:~~

~~— a. Lab practicals~~

~~— b. Make-up exams~~

~~c. Completion of assigned work for a grade, or class attendance for a grade, in compliance with the prior announcement provisions of SR 5.2.4.1 (RC 11/02/05)~~

Final examinations may be given at times other than the regularly scheduled time in the following instances:

Faculty

In the case of conflicts or undue hardship for an individual instructor, a final examination may be rescheduled at another time during the final examination period upon the recommendation of the chair of the department and with the concurrence of the dean of the college and the University Registrar. (US: 4/28/86)

Students

Any student with more than two final examinations scheduled on any one date shall be entitled to have the examination for the class with the highest catalog number rescheduled at another time during the final examination period. In case this highest number is shared by more than one course, the one whose departmental prefix is first alphabetically will be rescheduled. The option to reschedule must be exercised in writing to the appropriate instructor two weeks prior to the last class meeting. (US: 4/28/86)

If a conflict is created by rescheduling of an examination, the student shall be entitled to take the rescheduled examination at another time during the final examination period. (US: 4/28/86)

In the case of undue hardship for an individual student, a final examination may be rescheduled by the instructor.

5.2.4.78 Final Examinations Scheduled for the Same Time A student for whom two examinations have been scheduled for the same time shall be entitled to have the examination for the class with the higher catalog number rescheduled. In case both classes have the same number, the one whose departmental prefix is alphabetically first will be rescheduled. This rescheduling must be requested of the appropriate instructor in writing at least two weeks prior to the scheduled examination. (US:4/14/80; US: 10/11/93)
