University of Kentucky Steel Band

Drums: West Africa to Trinidad

The University of Kentucky Steel Band presents an exciting school program that engages, educates and enlightens! Your students and staff will follow a historical time-line that traces the roots of Afro-Caribbean music and society from West Africa to the New World. Much more than an exciting concert, this complete program emphasizes the nature of communication by allowing students to gather information through listening, participating, observing, and visualizing.

*Often hailed as "...the best school assembly we've ever seen!"
The UK Steel Band is now offered as a field trip for your school.*
