

JOB GROUPINGS EXEMPT FROM TEMPORARY EMPLOYMENT

1. Agriculture Outside of Lexington
Applies to Agriculture Extension Offices outside Lexington:
Nicholasville/Versailles/Georgetown/Winchester/Paris/Frankfort areas.
2. Robinson Trust
Applies to Robinson's Scholar program.
3. Medical Center Programs/Outside Lexington
Applies to programs that operate outside the Lexington/Nicholasville/Versailles Georgetown/Paris/Winchester/Frankfort areas. Examples are the Center for Rural Health, the Nurse Practitioner Program, and the Allied Health Physician Assistant Program.
4. Athletic Camps, Game Attendants, and Temporary Coaches
Applies to UK Athletics Association ONLY.
5. Operations and News Personnel
Applies to announcers, producers, editors, anchors, and reporters associated with WUKY.
6. Students Employed on Student Wage Lines or for Minority Outreach Programs
Applies to all student positions on 13XX sub code series, the Science Outreach Program, and the Summer Minority Outreach Program.
7. Summer Stipends
Applies to programs offered to recruit students (undergraduate or high school) to participate in undergraduate research programs. These students receive a stipend for their work.
8. Post Docs/Research Associates
Applies to all postdoctoral Scholars, Fellows, and temporary Research Associates included under the 12XX sub code series.
9. Faculty
All faculties employed in the 11XX sub code series.
10. Physicians in Student Health
Student Health physicians are not employed as faculty, but as temporary professional staff.
Therefore, physicians hired in Student Health for temporary needs are exempt from Temporary Employment.
11. Temporary Faculty
Applies to future faculty employees as temporary professionals whose appointments are pending
Board of Trustees approval.
12. Instructors
Individuals hired as temporary professionals to instruct as subject matter experts, guest lecturers, clinical specialists, and/or course coordinators. Included are individuals hired to teach various continuing medical education courses such as CPR, EMT training, and Advanced Trauma Life Support.

13. House Staff
All residents employed at the Medical Center.
14. Teaching Assistants and Graduate Assistants
Individuals hired in the 13XX sub code series.
15. Social Workers, Psychologists, Psychometrics
Applies to the program in the Department of Psychiatry, which employs temporary clinical social workers and psychometrics to evaluate and counsel patients who are on managed contracts that will not pay for a psychiatric evaluation.
16. Contractual Workers
Individuals with any type of contractual agreement with the University.
17. Positions Funded by Grants Issued Prior to July 1, 1997 and Not Renewed on an Annual Basis
Contact Temporary Employment for more information.
18. High School Coop Students
Applies to high school students who are performing work to fulfill course credit requirements at local high schools.
19. Voluntary Employees
Applies to any person who volunteers his/her time to the University of Kentucky without compensation.
20. Hospital On-Call Staff
Applies to any hospital employee, who works only on an on-call basis.
21. Standardized Learning/Problem-Based Learning Patients
Applies to programs in the Medical Center, which employ temporary personnel to act as patients in various clinics for medical center students to practice their examination and diagnosis skills.
22. Visiting Scientists
This applies ONLY to the Center for Applied Energy Research (CAER).
23. Tutors
Most should be UK students paid student wages under sub code series 13XX.
24. Interpreters Employed by Disability Resource Center
Due to be paid the set amount established by the State of Kentucky.
25. Professional Technical/Scientific Positions Funded by Grants
Includes any technical/scientific position funded by a grant requiring a degreed professional such as a Research Assistant or Research Associate.