

Global Careers

Sponsored by Education Abroad at UK

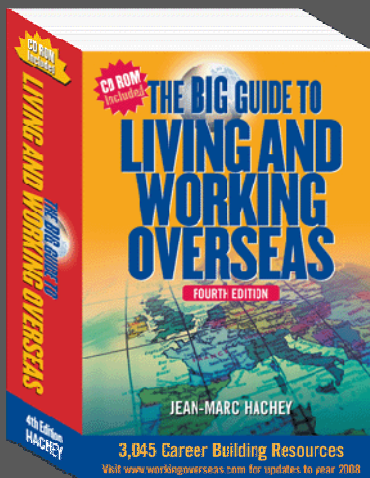

Monday
March

3

8 AM to 9:30 AM

Lexmark Room
Main Building

Please RSVP
by February 27
257-4067 ext 252

The BIG Guide will be available for $40.
SAVE $19.95 over the bookstore price!

Jean-Marc Hachey
Bestselling Author

The BIG Guide to Living and Working Overseas

HELPING STUDENTS UNDERSTAND INTERNATIONAL CAREERS A Workshop for Faculty and Advisers

Learn about international careers from best selling author Jean-Marc Hachey and his book The BIG Guide to Living and Working Overseas. Discover how to guide students interested in building an international career, how to acquire international experience and the difference between the international job search and a domestic job search. Hachey also puts forth innovative ideas on how various departments on campus can work together to help students build international career and global citizenship credentials. Hachey's seminars are brimming with practical tips, expert advice and humorous stories to help anyone go abroad and prepare for work in the new global economy.

Continental breakfast will be available 8:00 - 8:30 a.m.
The seminar will begin promptly at 8:30 a.m.

Everyone who attends this seminar receives a complimentary
24-month subscription to THE BIG GUIDE ONLINE

Sponsored by: Education Abroad at UK, Office of International Affairs
Co-sponsored by: UK Experiential Education and Career Services in the James W. Stuckert Career Center