

The Crisis is Scholarly Communication

Symposium Schedule

April 7, 2003

Speaker sessions will be conducted in the William T. Young Library Auditorium. Breaks and demonstration sessions will take place in the Gallery. See the symposium website (<http://www.uky.edu/Libraries/ScholarlyComm/>) for symposium registration.

Time	Session Information
8:00 - 8:30	Continental breakfast and Demonstrations (Gallery)
8:30 - 8:45	Welcome Mary Molinaro, Acting Dean of Libraries, University of Kentucky
8:45 - 10:00	The Scholarly Communications Crisis: A Call for a Public Goods Solution David Shulenburg, Provost and Executive Vice Chancellor, University of Kansas Introduction by: Michael T. Nietzel, Provost, University of Kentucky
10:00 - 10:30	Break and Demonstrations (Gallery)
10:30 - 12:00	Perspective of Affected Communities: Publishing, Libraries, Faculty Session Moderator: Stephen Wrinn, Director, University Press of Kentucky	The Future of Scholarly Publishing, A University Press Perspective Peter Givler, Executive Director of the Association of American University Presses
		Navigating Scylla and Charybdis: Higher Prices, Higher Expectations James Burgett, Collection Services Team Leader, University of Kentucky Libraries
		Research and Digital Libraries Kevin Kiernan, T Marshall Hahn Sr Professor of Arts & Sciences, University of Kentucky
12:00 - 1:30	Lunch on your own (Suggestions will be provided for visitors who are not familiar with Lexington)

1:30 - 3:00	Taking Control of our Intellectual Property Session Moderator: Ling Hwey Jeng, Associate Professor, School of Library and Information Science, University of Kentucky	Copyright, Publication, and Scholarship: You want me to sign what ??? Dwayne Buttler, Endowed Chair for Scholarly Communication, University of Louisville <hr/> SPARC: Generating and Supporting New Ideas for Scholarly Communication Julia Blixrud, Assistant Director, Public Programs, for SPARC (the Scholarly Publishing and Academic Resources Coalition)
3:00 - 3:30	Break and Demonstrations (Gallery)
3:30 - 5:00	Opportunities and Obligations in Scholarly Communication Session Moderator: Wendy Baldwin, Vice President for Research, University of Kentucky	Opportunities and Challenges in Electronic Publication for the Humanities Ross Scaife, Associate Professor, Department of Classics, University of Kentucky <hr/> Will It Still Be Around and Will We Still Be Able to Use It?: Long-term Preservation and Access to Electronic Information Tom Rosko, University Archivist and Director, University Archives & Records Program, University of Kentucky <hr/> Promotion and Tenure Issues Relating to the Evolution of Scholarly Communication: A Panel Discussion Richard Greissman (discussion moderator), Assistant Dean for Faculty Affairs, College of Arts and Sciences, University of Kentucky Panelists: TBA
5:00 - 5:30	Discussion and wrap-up: Next Steps for the University of Kentucky Facilitator: Mary Molinaro, Acting Dean of Libraries, University of Kentucky

Demonstration Schedule

Demonstration sessions will be held in the Gallery, during the breaks. Below is a schedule of the resources that will be shown during the demonstration sessions. These sessions are informal and interactive. You will have an opportunity to see each resource in action, ask questions, and talk with other conference attendees.

Time	Resource/Demonstrator
8:00 - 8:30	DSpace - http://www.dspace.org/ A digital repository created to capture, distribute and preserve the intellectual output of MIT. Demonstrated by: Shawn Livingston, Reference Librarian, University of Kentucky arXiv.org - http://arxiv.org/ An e-print service in the fields of physics, mathematics, non-linear science and computer science. Demonstrated by: Jennifer Nelson, Graduate Student, Library & Information Sciences/Classics, University of Kentucky University of Kentucky Electronic Theses and Dissertations - http://www.uky.edu/ETD/ Program that gives UK graduate students the option to submit electronic dissertations and theses instead of the traditional bound paper. Demonstrated by: Beth Kraemer, Electronic Resources Librarian, University of Kentucky
10:00 - 10:30	Kentucky Encyclopedia - http://www.kyenc.com/info/ Full-text, searchable online edition of the print publication by University Press of Kentucky. Demonstrated by: Stephen Wrinn, Director, University Press of Kentucky Kentuckiana Digital Library - http://www.kyvl.org/kentuckiana/digilibcoll/digilibcoll.shtml Online searchable repository of materials from archives around the state. Includes digitized documents, images, audio files and finding aids. Demonstrated by: Eric Weig, Digital Projects Librarian, University of Kentucky Libraries Public Library of Science - http://www.publiclibraryofscience.org/ A non-profit organization of scientists committed to making the world's scientific and medical literature a public resource. Demonstrated by: James Manasco, Engineering Librarian, University of Kentucky

3:00 - 3:30	Electronic Beowulf - http://www.uky.edu/~kiernan/eBeowulf/guide.htm The Electronic Beowulf is an image-based edition of Beowulf, the great Old English poem surviving in the British Library in a composite codex known as Cotton Vitellius A. xv. Demonstrated by: Dorothy Porter, Program Coordinator, Research in Computing for Humanities (RCH), University of Kentucky STOA - http://www.stoa.org/ A consortium for electronic publication in the humanities. Demonstrated by: Ross Scaife, Associate Professor, Department of Classics, University of Kentucky SPARC - http://www.arl.org/sparc/ A worldwide alliance of research institutions, libraries, and organizations that encourages competition in the scholarly communications market. Demonstrated by: Stephanie Aken, Electronic Resources/Ejournals Librarian, University of Kentucky Medical Center Library
-------------	---

Symposium sponsored by the University of Kentucky Libraries, the University Press of Kentucky, and the University of Kentucky Office of the Provost.