Third Floor

Quiet Study areas are designated on the 3rd and 5th floors.

Periodicals are shelved on compact shelving. The Book Collection begins on the 3rd floor. Refer to Call Number Maps near elevators for call numbers.

Fourth Floor

Part of the Book Collection, study carrels and Faculty Study Rooms are available on the 4th floor.

Fifth Floor

The Book Collection continues on the 5th floor, along with more quiet study space. Group study rooms (floors 1-5) can be checked out at the Circulation Desk, first come, first serve basis.

UK Theses & Dissertations are housed in the central rotunda on the 5th floor.

The Thomas D. Clark Study is available for quiet study.

UK Libraries house or provide access to US Federal Government publications concerning public policy and legal issues as well as other topics like the environment, education, health care, etc.

64 quilts from the Wade Hall Quilt Collection are on display on the fifth floor.

Contact the Reference Desk for more information:
(859) 218-2048 or refdesk@uky.edu

The Hub is a collection of student-centered services.

At AV Services you can borrow a laptop or check out a DVD.

Staff at the Media Depot can help with digital media projects.

The Writing Center has consultants for individual or group writing help.

Come to Student Computing to use computers or for help with account/computer problems.

The Vending area has vending machines, a microwave and dining tables.

Presentation U provides tutoring assistance and training with multimodal communication projects.

First Floor

Come to the Circulation Desk to check out a book or study room, activate your WildCard or pick up Interlibrary Loan requests.

Enjoy a meal or coffee break at Starbucks.

Copy Center services includes color and black & white printing and copying, scanning and faxing.

The Dean’s Office includes library administration offices.

There are several meeting rooms on the first floor and elsewhere, which can be reserved for official UK organizations.

The UK Athletics Association Auditorium and UK National Alumni Association Gallery can also be reserved for UK meetings and events.

The Mesozoic-age limestone throughout Young Library has fossils of marine creatures.

Second Floor

Come to the Reference Desk whenever you need help.

The Reference Collection includes materials that are factual in nature, like encyclopedias.

Come to the Periodicals Desk to view microforms and use the microform readers.

The Research Commons has tables, white boards, Huddle rooms and other features.

Use DART machines to load money on your WildCard for printing.

The Disability Services room includes adaptive equipment & software.

There are eight guest access computers in Cores 1 and 2 for use by patrons not affiliated with UK. A UK Library account is required for access.