College of Business and Economics

To earn the Bachelor of Science in Business and Economics degree, students in the Carol Martin Gatton College of Business and Economics must fulfill University Studies requirements, as well as the College requirements, pre-major and major requirements, and College core requirements listed below.

In addition, the College of Arts and Sciences offers an undergraduate degree in Economics. The main distinction lies in the required supporting courses in each college.

Admission Policy

Admission to the University is sufficient for admission to the Gatton College of Business and Economics for students with less than a junior standing. However, lower division admission to the college or any admission to the University does not guarantee upper division admission to one of the degree programs in the Gatton College of Business and Economics. In general, admission depends upon the qualifications and preparation of the applicants, as well as the availability of resources for maintaining quality instruction.

Upper division admission into a degree program is necessary in order to be granted a baccalaureate degree from the Gatton College of Business and Economics.

The upper division admission requirements for the 2003-2004 academic year are a minimum 3.0 cumulative GPA or the minimum current Annual Admission GPA, whichever is lower; and a minimum 3.0 English/premajor GPA or the minimum current Annual Admission GPA, whichever is lower.
