

Hospitality Management and Tourism

NOTE: At the time of publication, the B.S. in Hospitality Management was undergoing revision. Consult your advisor for more information.

In the Hospitality Management and Tourism program option in Nutrition and Food Science, which leads to the B.S. in Hospitality Management, students acquire the specialized knowledge needed for careers in the hospitality industry. They also receive training in the basic functions, objectives, and techniques of management. The student is prepared for managerial positions in hotels, restaurants, non-commercial food service and tourism areas, as well as positions as purchasing agents, food service equipment specialists, food service planning specialists, and other careers.
