

Secondary English Education

College of Education

Requirements for Program

This B.A. includes completion of an approved plan in the academic specialty teaching of English. The approved major in the academic specialties for teaching is entitled "English major for secondary education," to distinguish it from the A&S major and minor. No certification is awarded with the B.A. Students desiring to go on to Master's with initial certification must apply to The Graduate School and apply to the Secondary English Program Faculty in the spring of their senior year.

To receive the B.A. degree, students must: (1) complete the University Studies Program; (2) complete at least 128 semester hours; (3) complete the requirements for one of the content area plans for secondary English education; (4) attain a grade-point average of at least 2.5 overall, in major, in minor, and in support area; and (5) complete 100 hours of fieldwork with-adolescents through the required three hour course:

EDC 362 Field Experiences in Secondary Education 3

In 1996, the National Council of Teachers of English and the International Reading Association published Standards for the English Language Arts. This document identified six English language arts: reading, writing, speaking, listening, viewing, and visually representing. In addition, it presented an expanded definition of literacy, which reflects the ways technology and society have changed and will continue to change the ways in which we use language to communicate and to think. In order to prepare students for the literacy demands of today and tomorrow, English language arts education will need to address many different types and uses of language, including those that have traditionally been given limited attention in the curriculum. One such example is spoken language. Being literate in contemporary society means being active, critical, and creative users not only of print and spoken language but also of the visual language of film, television, photography and other media. Therefore, the content model should reflect the study of language and literacy through speech, theater, writing, and media. The English education program prepares its pre-service teachers with such a model so that their students will succeed as effective language learners and users, equipped with the skills they need to become critically literate citizens, workers, members of society, and lifelong learners.

Continuous Assessment

1. All secondary education majors must be admitted to advanced standing after completing 60 hours. Advanced standing requires a 2.50 minimum GPA overall and review by the program faculty advisor for Secondary English Education.

2. Because certification occurs through the Masters in Education including certification (MIC), students should be aware that they will need to be formally admitted to the MIC program. Admission/Retention/Exit regulations for all teacher certification programs are specified in the section "Admission, Retention and Exit from Teacher Education Programs" on page 166 of the 2007-2008 UK Bulletin.

3. Oral and written communication skills of applicants for the MIC program in English Education will be assessed at the time of the interview, and through the entrance portfolio.

4. At the time of application to the English Education program at the Master's degree level, applicants are evaluated according to the following criteria: grade-point average, quality of work in the subject content area, Graduate Record Examination scores, graded and on-site writing tasks, verbal communication, quality of references, commitment to teaching, social awareness, educational experiences with diverse learners 14-18 years old, and multicultural experiences.

Statement on Student Teaching

There is no student teaching required for completion of the Secondary English Education major. Student teaching occurs as part of the Masters in Education with initial certification.

Foreign Language Majors for Secondary Education (30 hours)

NOTE: The College of Education is currently suspending its undergraduate program preparing students for foreign language education. English Education students with a parallel interest in teaching foreign language in the public schools should consult both with an advisor in the office of Academic Services and Teacher Certification in the College of Education, and an advisor in the College of Arts and Sciences.

Students pursuing Plan 1, which includes a double major in Secondary English Education and a certifiable foreign language, must follow the foreign language plans below. In Kentucky, foreign language certification is for grades P-12. At the time of admission to the Masters in Education with initial certification, foreign language candidates will have to earn at least an "Intermediate High" in both oral language and written language proficiency on the ACTFL academic scale.
