Dear Blake and Citizen Review Panel members;

The response to your annual report is complete and ready for your review and consideration. The diligent work of the panel members is apparent in your outcomes. The choice of your work projects reflects your involvement with your community and the Department for Community Based Services offices in your region.

Thank you for the time and energy that you devote to the panel work. It is helpful to have objective individuals to provide input on policy and program. Your support of and advocacy for the staff is greatly appreciated. They have a difficult job to do and your acknowledgement of their good work is certainly an encouragement.

I look forward to working with you this next year.

Sincerely,

Gayle L. Yocum, MSW, CSW
Internal Policy Analyst III
