

The College of Social Work
University of Kentucky
Presents

The Peace, Social Justice and Reconciliation Annual Lecture

Social Work in the Global Community

A Breakfast Conversation with Terry Anderson, Journalist

Lexington's New Neighbors: A Community for the 21st Century

Isabel Gereda Taylor, JD, LLM
Multicultural Affairs Coordinator, Lexington
Fayette Urban County Government

And a discussion with Bree Pearson, BASW
Human Trafficking Outreach Advocate,
Bluegrass Rape Crisis Center

Drum Majors for Peace Awards

Friday, March 6, 2009
8:30 a.m.—12:00 p.m.
W.T. Young Library Auditorium

Lecture with discussion is Free and open to the public
Continental Breakfast is in Keeneland Room

This event is part of the Peace, Social Justice and Reconciliation Week sponsored by the College of Social Work and its community partners: the Lexington Human Rights Commission,
Lexington Commission on Race Relations,
Habitat for Humanity and the Humanitarium.