

K Week, the fall welcome week for new students, is a wonderful opportunity for student organizations to recruit new members and raise awareness in the campus community. All student organizations are encouraged to take advantage of each opportunity listed below! Visit www.uky.edu/KWeek for a complete schedule of events.

Opportunities for Student Organizations During K Week:

Friday, August 21, 2009

Volunteer with Move-in (Shifts from 9 a.m. – 5 p.m.): Many student organizations choose to assist with move-in. It is a great opportunity for you to wear identifying t-shirts as you help unload belongings on to carts or tables. To volunteer for a 3 – 4 hour shift during move-in, send an email with your contact information to UKMoveIn@email.uky.edu.

Saturday, August 22, 2009

Campus Ruckus (9 p.m. – 1 a.m., Football Stadium Parking Lot): Student organizations are invited to set up interactive booths (i.e. Dunk tank, Pie-throwing contest, Bottle knockdown, etc.) to engage students and share information on involvement opportunities. In addition, all members of student organizations are encouraged to attend and wear identifying t-shirts while passing out handbills to connect with both new and returning students. To sign up for an interactive booth, contact Corey Ballard at CLBallard@uky.edu.

Sunday, August 23, 2009

Student Center Spectacular (8 p.m. – 12 Midnight, Student Center): Student organizations will not have tables at Spectacular this year. However, organization members are encouraged to attend and wear identifying t-shirts while passing out handbills to connect with both new and returning students.

Monday, August 24, 2009

UK FUSION (9:30 a.m. – 3 p.m., departing from Haggin Field): Members of student organizations are encouraged to wear identifying t-shirts and join a group of students performing community service throughout Lexington. In addition, service-based organizations are welcome to table on Haggin Field from 2:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. as students return from their service sites.
