Find ...

1. A person who is left-handed: ______________________________________________________
2. A person who has read all of the Harry Potter Books: _____________________________
3. A person who has more than three siblings: _______________________________________
4. A person who speaks multiple languages: _________________________________________
5. A person who loves table tennis: _______________________________________________
6. A person who played sports for their high school varsity sports team: ________________
7. A person who does not have a facebook account: ________________________________
8. A person who has traveled out of the country: ________________________________
9. A person who enjoys fishing: __________________________________________________
10. A person who worked more than ten hours this summer: _______________________
11. A person who cannot whistle: _______________________________________________
12. A person who aspires to be a physician: _______________________________________
13. A person who can juggle: ____________________________________________________
14. A person who has broken a bone: ____________________________________________
15. A person who has met someone famous: _______________________________________
16. A person who does not like seafood: __________________________________________
17. A person who can cross their eyes: _____________________________________________
18. A person who tells a good joke: ______________________________________________
19. A person who watches jeopardy: _____________________________________________
20. A person who is excited to be at UK: _________________________________________