Faculty Vice-Chair
Lexington Community College

January 30, 2004

Dr. Jeff Dembo - Chair
University of Kentucky Senate Council
Senate Office
153 Bowman Hall 0059

Dear Dr. Dembo:

A special called meeting of the Faculty of Lexington Community College was held on Friday, January 23, 2004. As Vice-Chair of the Faculty, I am forwarding you the resolution that was prepared, voted on, and adopted by the faculty of LCC at said meeting. Since the University Senate is LCC's official voice to the University of Kentucky Board of Trustees, it is our wish that you present this resolution to the Board for their consideration.

Due to the nature of this situation and the time constraints involved with LCC's accreditation, I am also sending the resolution directly to the Board of Trustees.

Sincerely,

Vicki Partin
Faculty Vice-Chair
Lexington Community College

c: Dr. Jim Kerley, President and Chair of the Faculty, Lexington Community College
c: Dr. Lee Todd, President, University of Kentucky
c: Dr. Steven Reed, Chair, University of Kentucky Board of Trustees

RESOLUTION

We the faculty of Lexington Community College resolve that the Board of Trustees establish Lexington Community College as an autonomous institution under the auspices of The University of Kentucky. We further resolve that the Board of Trustees instructs Dr. Todd to proceed with deliberate speed to facilitate autonomous status to satisfy the requirement of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.
