The Graduate Council met on March 13, 2003, and approved the following:

THE GRADUATE SCHOOL

Communication

Change in Doctoral Program, Communication

"All students are also required to complete at least one advanced methods/statistics course from a list of approved courses available from the Associate Dean of Graduate Studies and at least 3 credit hours of CJT 790 by the last semester of course work". The advanced methods/statistics course indicated above is in addition to the existing requirement that doctoral students complete a 500-level or above statistics course in the first year curriculum.

ORIGINAL

1 Any other requirements not covered above

Change "All students are also required to complete at least 3 credit hours of CJT 790 by the last semester of course work" to "All students are also required to complete at least one advanced methods/statistics course from-- (continued under Rationale section)

II. RATIONALE FOR CHANGE(S)

If the rationale involves accreditation requirements, please include specific references to those requirements.

This new requirement is designed to fill a gap that has been observed in the Program of Study among some doctoral students. The Graduate Faculty feels it is important for our students to have such a course both for preparation for the Qualifying Exam and for research on the dissertation.

continued--a list of approved courses available from the Associate Dean of Graduate Studies and at least 3 credit hours of CJT 790 by the last semester of course work."
