COLLEGE OF SOCIAL WORK

NEW COURSES

SW 627 Collaborative Practice: Substance Abuse, Mental Health, & Social Service (3 credits)

This course provides students with critical knowledge about substance abuse and mental health problems experienced by families. A variety of subjects related to substance use disorders and mental health problems will be discussed such as screening, assessment, case management, and referral services. Collaborative practice with substance abuse, mental health service providers, social services, and other providers is addressed.

Prerequisites: Completion of a baccalaureate degree.

SW 774 Mental Health Research Methods (3 credits)

This course will explore the principles and procedures that govern mental health research by examining the different ways researchers study mental health phenomenon. In this course, students will learn the skills to engage in the scientific investigation of significant mental health problems, and dissemination strategies utilized to transfer empirical findings into mental health practice and policy development. This course emphasizes aspects of methodological design essential for conducting meta-analysis, treatment, prevention and epidemiological research that may be outside the scope of a general research course.

Prerequisites: SW 770 and SW 771 (SW 771 may be taken concurrently).

CHANGED COURSES

SW 741 Family and Community Practicum (4 credits)

Change to:

SW 741 Family and Community Practicum II (4 credits)

Prerequisites: Admission into the MSW program with Advanced Standing of SW 741-I.

SW 505 Child Welfare Services (2-3 credits)

A study of community and national programs for child care and protection, including aid for dependent children and other social security services.

Change to:

SW 505 Child Welfare Services (2-3 credits)

This course provides a comprehensive introduction to child abuse and neglect, including historical perspectives, indicators of maltreatment, theories about its etiology, and effective interventions on the micro and macro levels. Students will learn about child protective policies and services, and the social worker's roles and responsibilities.
