The Graduate Council met on April 10, 2003, and approved the following:

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

Curriculum and Instruction

COURSE CHANGE:

EDC 550 – Education in a Culturally Diverse Society (3 credits)
(Change in description, cross-listed)

Change to:

EDC 550 – Education in a Culturally Diverse Society (3 credits)

Cross-listed as AAS 550. This course assists future educators in developing strategies to create an equitable teaching/learning environment where all students are validated, stimulated, and nurtured. Course participants explore the rationale for their current belief systems and perceptions of other cultures; investigate how and why their personal attitudes, behaviors, and expectations affect the academic and social development of children and youth, and examine contemporary educational issues.

Prerequisites: None listed.
