   The Jacobs Science Building is a three-story classroom and laboratory space that provides the latest technology for learning to our students. Built with the support from UK Alumni, this facility home to restaurants such as the Rising Roll Gourmet.

9. Johnson Center (G-7)
   The Johnson Center houses hundreds of pieces of cardio, weight training and aerobics equipment; two indoor tracks; and the famous rock climbing wall. Here, students can sign-up to work with a personal trainer or join an intramural sports team.

10. Nutter Training Facility (H-6)
    The Big Blue Nation is known as one of the largest, most passionate fanbases in the country but don’t limit that pride to just one sport. With 22 varsity sports, you can cheer on the Wildcats on the court, field or mat year round! Nutter Training Facility is where our athletes prepare to compete in the nation’s toughest conference - the SEC.

11. The 90 (F-5)
    The 90 is a dining and student support facility home to restaurants such as the Fresh Food Company, Aqua Sushi, LaMadeleine and Taco Bell Express. This facility also contains offices for LLP programs and classrooms.

12. William T. Young Library (E-5)
    The William T. Young Library is the most popular place to study on UK’s campus, even though it is one of 10 libraries on campus. The library contains moving bookshelves, two computer labs and more than 50 group study rooms. Students can also have their papers reviewed at the Writing Center or stop by Tech Help at The Hub for any IT questions.

13. Greek Park (E-3)
    Approximately 25 percent of UK students are involved in Greek life. Along Columbia Terrace, many of the sororities, and a few of the fraternities, have their houses. Participating in Greek life is a great option for involvement on campus, but certainly not the only one. There are more than 600 registered student organizations at UK or you can create another with four friends, a constitution and a faculty or staff advisor!

14. Maxwell Place (D-4)
    The path around Maxwell Place not only serves as a shortcut leading from Central Campus to the main academic area, but the house serves as a home for our president. Dr. Eli Capodilupo, and his wife. They live here 24/7, 365 days a year, but this path is always open to students.

15. Singletary Center for the Arts (D-2)
