In this course, students will develop an understanding of concepts and theories of consumer economics, as well as real world application. Topics will include consumer economic rights, issues, and theories; government policy and regulation; and consumerism in the U.S. and global marketplaces.

Mondays, Wednesdays, & Fridays
2:00-2:50 PM

Contact the professor:
Dr. Bruce Ross
bruce.ross@uky.edu