The Japanese Language and Literature major emphasizes language acquisition through four years of language training, together with an approach that integrates a range of disciplinary perspectives including literature, cultural/media studies, anthropology, geography, history, philosophy, art, and sociology. The program will prepare students for a variety of post-baccalaureate options, serving as preparation both for graduate training in fields requiring advanced Japanese language competence, and for Japan-related career choices. 120 hours (minimum)

Any student earning a Bachelor of Science (BS) degree must complete a minimum of 60 hours in natural, physical, mathematical, and computer science. Please note: courses with an LIN prefix are generally not accepted towards fulfilling this 60-hour requirement. Therefore, be sure to keep this requirement in mind as you choose your course work for the requirements in the major. A complete description of College requirements for a Bachelor of Science degree, including a specific listing of courses applicable to the 60-hour requirement, can be found in the Arts and Sciences section of the 2014-2015 Undergraduate Bulletin.
