HON 100 ACADEMIC ORIENTATION FOR HONORS STUDENTS.
(1)
This course is designed to introduce Honors students to the scholarly life of the University and also to organize and execute community service as a cohort. Through guest lectures, discussions and out-of-the-classroom assignments, HON 100 helps Honors scholars gain an early understanding of opportunities at a research university, increase awareness and use of campus resources, reflect on community issues that they can address using the skills and talents specific to their cohort, and form beneficial relationship with students, faculty and staff. Prereq: Lewis Honors students only. Priority given to Honors Scholarship programs cohorts, e.g., the Singletary Scholarship recipients.

HON 101 KNOWLEDGE AND SOCIETY.
(3)
As a foundational course to the Honors curriculum, Knowledge and Society takes a vested interest in helping students develop an appreciation for the pursuit of truth and knowledge. By exploring the links between subjective and social phenomena, students will gain a clearer understanding of the way inquiry and curiosity are implicated in our familial, cultural, historical, and political worlds. This course aims to foster an environment where students are equipped with the tools to confidently discern the assumptions, premises, and expectations of variant claims to knowledge and truth. Knowledge and Society is an invitation extended to students to (re)imagine their identity as agents in an interconnected and ever-expanding global context. Prereq: Lewis Honors students only.

HON 151 HONORS IN HUMANITIES (Subtitle required).
(3)
Honors Humanities topics offered by various professors (topics announced the preceding semester). Whatever the topic, the Honors Humanities courses reflect on the human condition through works of art and literature (including folklore and film), philosophical and religious contemplation and argumentation, and historical narrative. They undertake interdisciplinary investigations of significant intellectual and cultural issues of our past and present (and thus of our future) and are designed to stimulate individual thought as well as develop writing, critical thinking, and small-group discussion skills. May be repeated up to six hours under a different subtitle. Prereq: Lewis Honors students only.

HON 152 HONORS IN NATURAL, PHYSICAL, AND MATHEMATICAL SCIENCES (Subtitle required).
(3)
A hands-on, science course for Honors student in which they ask a question requiring scientific analysis, develop a related experimentation regimen, collect data, do the experimentation, analyze the results, draw conclusions and appropriately disseminate the results. Students will directly experience the scientific process to learn how scientists work. Prereq: Lewis Honors students only.

HON 251 HONORS IN SOCIAL SCIENCES (Subtitle required).
(3)
The World as Human Network and Affairs: Courses in this category promote the understanding of individuals in the context of social interactions, groups and societies. The courses will focus on the subjective, intersubjective, and structural aspects of society, with the goal of helping students to enhance their understanding of the phenomenon that is human society. May be repeated up to six hours under a different subtitle. Prereq: Lewis Honors students only.

HON 252 HONORS IN ARTS AND CREATIVITY (Subtitle required).
(3)
The creative process and its products and results are the focus of these Honors courses, and include but are not limited to, visual, verbal, musical, spatial, or kinesthetic forms of expression. Readings and final projects vary at the discretion of the faculty. May be repeated up to six hours under a different subtitle. Prereq: Lewis Honors students only.

HON 301 PROSEMINAR.
(3)
An interdisciplinary course that offers an in-depth examination into a topic chosen by the instructor. HON 301 Proseminar uses an interdisciplinary approach to interrogate history, culture, and constructions of knowledge. The format of the seminar is discussion-based and student-centered. Throughout the semester, students will be responsible for leading assigned discussions in collaboration with their peers and/or professor. This course enhances critical and creative thinking skills through specialized projects, research, written assignments and/or oral presentations. May be repeated to a maximum of six hours. Prereq: At least two lower level Honors courses. Lewis Honors students only.

HON 333 JOURNAL/JOURNEY PROJECT.
(1)
