ISP 499 STUDY ABROAD IN SPONSORED PROGRAM. (12-16)
A course designed for undergraduate students who go abroad to take courses in a foreign institution as part of a University of Kentucky program. A plan of study must be developed with the advice and approval of the UK faculty advisor for the particular study abroad program. The variable credits for ISP 499 are based on the number of credit hours the student plans to complete at the foreign institution. The actual credit hours recorded represent those credits completed by the student and sent to the Office of International Affairs by the foreign institution. University equivalent credit will be determined prior to the beginning of the student’s study abroad. Prereq: Approval by student’s academic department, the faculty advisor for the study abroad program, and the Office of International Affairs.

ISP 599 STUDY ABROAD. (1)
A course designed for undergraduate and graduate students who go abroad for study following a plan developed as part of their academic program and who are not otherwise registered at the University during the period overseas. Registration in the course would constitute full-time status. The course may be taken on a pass-fail basis for undergraduate students and audited by graduate students. Evaluation by the academic adviser will be an element of the plan. May be repeated to a maximum of three credits. Prereq: Approval by each student’s academic department, the Registrar, and the Office for International Programs.
